Bloomfield Barons Beat Clarenceville

To all the school's joy, Bloomfield Barons beat the Clarenceville team 7-6, last Friday. One of the highlights of the game was the passing of the ball for the point after touchdown. Congratulations, boys!

After the game, these chapter of Phi Sigma Tau held a girl-scout dance, the "Theta Hop." A novel affair, the boys and girls were watching costumes and to top it off there was a hula-hoop contest and a "cutest couple" contest. Ken Tragnese and Marguerite Schmidt won the "cutest couple" contest and John Markley took hula-hoop honors.

Seniors are still selling magazines like mad in order to raise money for the senior trip. Leading the competing honoraries is Mr. Dennis' class with about $800.

Bloomfield Hills girls' hockey team beat Huron Woods last Friday by a score of 9-0. Congrats

Lancers Hit By Madison Blow, 26-19

By CHRIS GRAYSON

The Bloomfield Hills junior high school Lancers were defeated Oct. 8 by Madison 26-19. Nevertheless, the game proved to be very exciting.

Members for the Girls' Inter-School Hockey team were selected Oct. 6 by Miss Sierist. Approximately 25 girls were chosen and organized into two different teams. Scheduled to play Kingswood Oct. 14 is one of the two teams, consisting of Marylin Robinson, Holly Fry, Susan Murphy, Sue Allen, Judy Geyman, Barbara Stollers, Judy Williams, Tina Orea, Susan Balmer and Meredith Plaxton. The two ninth grade teams will play one or two games a season.

The seventh and eighth grade girls will be organized into squads will have intramural games in basketball, volleyball, basketball and softball. Each squad will play one game a week.

Mr. Horie, arts and crafts teacher, is teaching both painting and ceramics. In the painting room he will teach oil painting, architectural drawing, interior decorating, ink and pencil drawing and watercolor. He is presently working on pastel and water colors. Distribution of some of the best finished products will be shown in some of the school show cases.

The first P.T.O. meeting held for Bloomfield Hills junior high Monday will be in an 8 p.m. Open House, Monday, Oct. 27 in the cafeteria.

At this time the parents will go through the daily schedule of the students in periods of eight minutes. This will give the parents a chance to meet new teachers and inquire about student progress. Immediately following the Open House will be a brief meeting in the cafeteria to organize the Junior high school P.T.O.

A student handbook and information on the Junior high school policies is the present project of the Student Council and the faculty. It is being made for the parents.

Extra-curricular Program Slated At S'field Schools

SOUTHFIELD—An expanded extra-curricular program for eighth grade students at Southfield No. 10 school and a list of outside activities available to ninth grade students at Lederle school were announced recently by Glenn Schoenhals, superintendent of Southfield schools.

At each school, activities are organized and developed by the student council. The sports program at both schools includes football, track, baseball and basketball teams and an intramural athletic program for boys and girls. There will also be cheer leader groups.

CHORAL groups and bands at both schools plan concerts during the year. There are also library groups at the two schools. Innovations at Southfield No. 10 include an art club and an expanded dance program.

At Lederle school additional activities will include a journalism club, a year book club, science club and a C.O.Z. club that will concentrate on building model rockets. There will also be a number of dances held.

Senior Play Stars Picked At Southfield

By BARBARA TROY, JOHN COUP and JEFF ZATEL

Phil Floyd was chosen to play the lead role of Joe Pendleton, a boxer, in the senior play, "Heaven Can Wait." Other parts went to Kathy Berberich, Phil Vesterick, Andy Garbo, Gerald Rickett, Bob Tuck, Gary Mitchell, Vicky Samuels, Tim Young, Gerry Harbert, Joel Darby, Bonnie Leach, Sherri Neville, Alice Anderson, Richard Elliott, Kathy Hoffmann, Ray Reese and Don Harshbarger.

This is the time of year when you can almost always find someone you know at the Franklin Cider Mill. Saw the 7-Teams gathered around one day last week enjoying cider & donuts.

Miss Barbara Hartmann, sponsor, recently announced eight reserve cheerleaders, chosen for 1959-60. They are Bonnie Higgins, Judy Foster, Gail Vockich, Ann Fryfogel, Pat DeLong, Barbara Drouynski, Shirley McCandey and Gerry Friend.

Southfield's Homecoming football game tomorrow at 3 p.m. will be the first game held under the new field lights. Half-time will feature a parade of floats carrying the homecoming queen and her court. The band will also give a demonstration.

We hear that Leo Mueller spent last Sunday afternoon working in his "laboratory" at "Sterling Samuels of Southfield," who will appear in the homecoming game as a co-median of all Southfield football players past, present and future.

The annual homecoming dance will be held Saturday, Oct. 18, from 8-12 p.m. The new queen will be crowned by the 1957 queen, senior, Susan Deem. Music will be provided by the Joe Grande orchestra.

Seniors are selling magazines to earn money for their class trip and other senior activities. Five dollars is given daily to the top salesman. Carol McAllister, Vicky Samuels and Donna Ward were top salesmen for the first three days
