To Hold Annual Christmas Fair

LATHRUP — The St. Michaels Altar Society will hold its annual Christmas Fair Nov. 8 from 4 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Several prizes will be given away, including a linen chest, bride doll, racing bike and a Thanksgiving ham with a turkey and all the trimmings.

A main attraction of the fair will be a "spookpot" doll, loaded with prizes for children to pick at 10 cents a try. There will also be a bakery booth, and snacks of all kinds will be served from the kitchen.

Bargains Galore

The rummage sale committee of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church is completing plans for a sale which will be held in the church social hall next week.

The sale will be held next Thursday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Friday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Rummage will be received Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Study Group Meets

The adult study group of the First Presbyterian church will begin meeting Oct. 5 at 5 p.m. Dr. W. Glen Harris, minister, will give lectures on the background and history of the Reformation, and show colored pictures he took last summer while visiting England and Western Europe. His first topic will be "John Knox, the Thundering Scot."

Unitarians Break Ground

Asked to re-act his expert groundbreaking later for the photographer, tired four-year-old David Howell leaned on the shovel on a recent Sunday noon and waited to be taken home for lunch and a nap. Watching him at the event preceding construction of the first building of the Birmingham Unitarian church are (from left) the Rev. Walter B. Pedersen, minister of the church, Architect Minoru Yamasaki, Mrs. Peter (Katherine) Loomis, building committee chairman, and Thomas S. Edwards, president of the church's board of trustees. Earlier David won applause when he broke the ground so enthusiastically that he fell. Then with youthful unconcern he sampled the flavor of his shovel (right). David, son of former church board president Douglas Howell, represented the church's former minister, the Rev. Russell L. Lincoln, at the groundbreaking ceremonies at the Lone Pine-Woodward building site. The church now numbers over 200 families, who hope to be using their new church before the summer recess next year.

Minister Not Synchronized

The current hula hoop craze sweeping the country seems to have had its effect on the clergy.

Here is what Dr. Alfred G. Gray, minister of the Birmingham Congregational Church, had to say in the church's news letter last week about his trying experience with a hula hoop.

"Mrs. Bellaire, who does a piece in the Free Press, opines that youngsters ought not to get their exercise by way of the hula hoop. I agree for the reason that I tried it and it doesn't work.

"It seems that the undulation of the hips must be synchronized with the whirling of the hoop, and I just can't get the blamed thing to stay up. Maybe I'm too broad in the beam or something.

"But I love to watch the children in our neighborhood, and they are marvelous performers and never get tired. God must love the children a lot for he inspires every generation of children-lovers to invent gadgets for the enjoyment of the youngsters (at a profit).

"When my wife was small it was scooters, and what a time they had scooting all over town—mostly in a direction away from home."
