

SOCIETY

Art Institute Tour

Engineering Society of Detroit Junior Wives will meet Oct. 8 at 8 p.m. for a tour of the Art Institute to see the "Michigan Annual Exhibition." The group will meet in the Junior room of the Rackham building at 9:30 p.m. for a short business meeting and refreshments. Birmingham women attending will be Mrs. Ronald Fisher, Mrs. Edwin Lou and Mrs. Lionel Ghelbert. News copy submitted early is necessarily given preference, so the "early bird" usually gets the space.

Musical Changes Meeting Time

"Good Music is Sweeping America" is the program theme for the Birmingham Musicale for its 33rd season. First program will be Oct. 9 at the new starting time of 1:30 p.m. at the Birmingham Community House.

Artists appearing on the first program will be Grace Herta, violin. She received her bachelor of music degree from the college of music of Cincinnati, where she studied with Emil Herrmann. L. Maree Jackson, accompanist for Miss Herta, is a pianist and teacher. She is a graduate of Detroit Institute of Musical Art. Charlotte McCray, soprano, is a music graduate from the University of Michigan. She toured under New York management in "Secret of Suzanne" by Wolf-Ferri. Margaret Anderson, accompanist for Charlotte McCray, has accompanied artists in New York and throughout the middle west. Helen Maday McAllister, piano, received her bachelor degree from Syracuse university and her master's degree from the U. of M.

Calendar Sale in Progress

Intermediate and senior Girl Scouts in the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills area began taking orders for calendars Monday and will continue through Oct. 6. Among those making house to house contacts are

Wildcats and Buckeyes To Play at Derby Field

Robert Wandall of Manchester road, divisional manager of the Birmingham Little Football league, is hoping parents and residents of the area will support the two football conferences this season.

The varsity conference consists of boys between 11 and 12 years old. They take their names from the Big Ten teams. From this area, east of Woodward, the Spartans play the Wolverines at Pierce field Friday at 8:30 p.m.

The freshman conference from the area are the Indians and Wildcats and consist of boys 9 and 10 years old. Saturday the Wildcats play the Buckeyes at Derby field at 9 a.m. and the Indians play the Belknapers also at Derby field at 10:30 a.m.

A recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, 902 Brooklawn road was Mrs. Adam's father, Lee Hale of Louisville, Ky. Returning to Kentucky with Mr. Hale was Mrs. Adams and 3-year-old grandson Jimmie to be houseguests of the Hales and the James Adams, Sr. Also visiting was Mrs. Adams' sister, Mrs. William Bayless and son Billy of Ardmore, Okla.

St. Helena's guild recently held a newcomers tea at Devon Gables for women in the Graefield-Pembroke Manor.

Mrs. Edward Fitzpatrick was chairman of the affair for about 40 women. They hope to increase their membership and encourage the newcomers to attend their meetings the third Tuesday of the month in St. Ann's hall at Holy Name.

Mrs. William Vocht, 1451 Witherbee road entertained her bridge club in her home Thursday evening.

Those present were Mrs. Ford Banes, Mrs. James Trev, Mrs. William Dye, Mrs. Robert Welch, Mrs. William Chew, Mrs. Leonard Evans and Mrs. Robert Distler.

Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, 1544 Witherbee road entertained business friends of Morgan Saturday for an all-day outing. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Glasgow, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Carey and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Warner.

Mrs. Warren McElhinney, 1517 Witherbee road entertained her neighborhood bridge club Wednesday evening.

Seated at the two tables were Mrs. George Roebuck, Mrs. William Mera, Mrs. Richard Monley, Mrs. James Boyce, Mrs. Myron Fisher, Mrs. Vernon Doering and Mrs. James Sowers.

The Women's auxiliary of the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce met last week at the home of Mrs. Al Fitch of Despy road.

After refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostess Mrs. Charles Meyer the meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. James Martin.

The main topic of discussion of the evening was the annual luncheon and fashion show to be held this year at Forest Lake Country club on November 13. Fashions will be from Davidson's with the membership modeling. Chairman for the affair is Mrs. Al Keogh.
