Plan Board Hears Real Estate Broker

The Birmingham planning board heard the September building report, discussed comprehensive planning, and heard a rezoning request at its Oct. 15 meeting.

Herbert Hershorn, city planner, discussed some of the points contained in an outline of a comprehensive plan he prepared and pointed out that additional information would be added to the plan.

Harry B. Lippard, Birmingham real estate broker, appeared before the board to discuss development of property north of Maple and east of the Grand Trunk railroad tracks.

LIPPARD said he was of the opinion that the best use for the property is multiple family dwelling use, but pointed out the present R-6 zoning regulations in the area would not permit the best use of the land.

He said he thought that property value in the area had increased to a point where R-6 regulations were too restrictive, and suggested that the planning board should consider rezoning the property to R-7.

The board agreed to take Lippard's request under advisement.

Birmingham Soccer Team Starts Fast

Birmingham high looks like it may make a go of soccer although the sport isn't officially on the athletic program.

A. A recreation-backed team of students, organized and coached by Victor Kovats, formerly of Czechoslovakia, pinned a 2-1 defeat on a non-varsity Cranbrook squad last Friday. They'll have a return match this Friday.

Ercan Sonkaya, Caki Pinter, Bill Klarish, Dick Webb, Don Heck, and George Harris sparked the Birmingham team. Also seeing action were Gil Kenneth, Bill Hicks, Jendon Cleland, Dennis Hawley, John Lohla, Endre Varga, Gordon Lowland and Jim Perry.
