

Now and then in these paragraphs I've referred to the fundamental human need to gain a better understanding of mankind's relationship to Divinity. For only through such efforts to man and woman achieve even a small bit of the environment of "Heaven upon earth." To refrain from eating for food is like refusing to feed the body with food. Starvation is a deadly thing.

Fair Features Goodies

"Holiday Fair", comprised of handmade items and home-baked goodies, will also have a snack bar for shoppers.

Sponsored by Birmingham chapter 220, OES, the one-day event will open at 10 a.m. Nov. 8, at the Masonic Temple, 359 South Woodward. Home-made food will be served between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Booths will include such items as aprons, Christmas ornaments, hobby horses, towels and washable stuffed toys . . . pigs, horses, rabbits, dolls, and humpy dumplings.

Mrs. Henry Bowden is chairman with the assistance of Mrs. Jesse Murray, aprons; Mrs. T. J. Conner, gifts; Mrs. Raymond Reuter, baked goods; Mrs. Harold Reuter, snack bar; Mrs. Lee Mosson, plants; Mrs. Ing Schulin, Christmas items; Mrs. Parker Eckersan, mail booth; Mrs. Clifford Ross, publicity; and Mrs. Gladys McVean, candy.

Southfield OES Installs Officers

Elizabeth Warrick will be installed as worthy matron of Southfield chapter 519 OES in the Birmingham Masonic Temple, Saturday at 8 p.m. Thomas Schlenker will become worthy patron, Pauline Tompke, associate matron, Noble Brooks, associate patron.

Mildred Glacecek will be secretary and Marie Slinger, the treasurer. Conductresses will be Dorothy Schlenker and Ella Bailey, associate conductresses. Selma Brown, past worthy grand matron of Michigan, will be the installing officer.

Convent Open House

Brownson Guild had its first meeting of the year at the new Sacred Heart Convent, Bloomfield Hills, Sunday. Program included an "Open House" of the new academy, greetings from Mother McAvard, the spiritual director of the guild and guest speaker, Genevieve Casey, from the Detroit Public Library.

Northland Nursery Schedules Meeting

Monthly membership meeting of the Northland Cooperative Nursery will be Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Clarkson, 23925 Valley View at 8 p.m. Guest speaker will be Charlotte O'Meara, supervisor of language education in the Detroit Public schools.

The topic will be "How parents can help their child before and during his first year of school."

DISPLAYING ITEMS made by OES members for the fall bazaar are Mrs. T. J. Conner, (left), gift chairman, and Mrs. Henry Bowden, general chairman.

Martha Pryor Engaged to John Hopkins

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE — In their home near Harrow, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Pryor announced the engagement of their daughter, Martha Roberts, to John Thomas Hopkins. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hopkins of Bloomfield Village.

The couple plans a midsummer wedding after Miss Pryor's graduation from the University of Detroit.

Cranbrook Branch Elects Officers

The new Cranbrook branch of the Michigan Farm and Garden club will meet at the home of Mrs. Earle McPherson of Merrimac court, Bloomfield Hills, on Nov. 3, for meeting and tea.

Newly elected officers for the coming year are Mrs. Charles Taylor, president; Mrs. William Mosher, Jr., vice president; Mrs. Lawrence Herman, recording secretary; Mrs. Percy Hamley, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Harold Tanner, treasurer.

The Cranbrook branch is composed of 40 women living in the Bloomfield area and have been sponsored by the Bloomfield Hills branch of National Farm and Garden club.

Goblins to March In Torry Parade

Strange things are happening around Torry school these days. Everyone is wondering who's going to be the scariest and the funniest when the goblins and witches march in the parade on Lincoln in front of Torry at 7 p.m. on Halloween night.

Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes and chairman, Bruce Young, is ordering good things to eat and drink.

Suburban Scene

Something for Everyone

The old cracker barrel, the checkered board, hand-cranked telephone and bolts of calico on the shelves will create a mood for a nostalgic retreat to an earlier way of life when the Country store opens for business at the 11th annual antique show and sale sponsored by the Junior group of Goodwill Industries.

"Something for everyone" could well be the slogan for the show which will feature a variety of antiques from (A) rmechair to (Z)odiacs. Contributing to the choice of this project are Mrs. H. J. Altick, Mrs. James Barnard and Mrs. Richard Wagner of the Birmingham area.

THE CANDY COUNTER, featuring old fashioned sweets, will be prepared for the Halloween "trade" with candy corn, "humbugs", jawbreakers, taffy, ju-ju-bees, rock candy, horehound and an assortment of confectionery reminiscent of childhood.

For the young girl, there will be dolls from colonial times and foreign countries.

The man and boy can add to his collection of old maps and prints.

Others from the Birmingham area greeting visitors at the show, acting as store managers, decorating windows . . . or working in one or another capacity . . . are Mrs. Robert N. Green, Mrs. Lloyd Bishop, Mrs. Russell Kelly, Mrs. Charles D. Gilbert and Mrs. James E. Croushore.

WHEN THE FEET FALTER and the spirit sags, shoppers will find the Americana room the place for the "pause that refreshes." This small cafe will be appropriately decorated with early American prints on pine paneled walls. The dining tables will be centered with turquoise candles and ivy in white milk glass compotes, complementing the turquoise and white china . . . which may also be purchased.

The four-day show, Oct. 26-29, will be at the Brush street plant.

Dinner and Concert

Dining at the Detroit Athletic club last Thursday before going to Ford auditorium for the opening Symphony concert under the baton of Conductor Paul Paray was a group including Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy W. Dahlberg, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Fredericks, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Booth, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Calder.

In a foursome were Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Johnson and the Raymond T. Perrings . . . Mrs. Johnson's short white ermine wrap was lined with black velvet to match her stunning black velvet gown which was a sweeping floor-length. Mrs. Perrings' floor-length evening gown was of French blue taffeta and her cape stole of breath-of-spring mink.

Mrs. James H. McPhail, Jr., was in black chiffon, a short evening dress with harem hem, and shaped stole of breath-of-spring mink. She and Mr. McPhail were a foursome with Mr. and Mrs. Phillip R. Flanders.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Allen Harlan had the Anthony Spinas as their guests. Mrs. Harlan wearing a short evening gown of pastel gray sheer silk over taffeta, trimmed with sprays of roses of the silk fabric.

The Robert N. Greens of Bloomfield Hills and the Draper Allens each had reservations for four for early dinner the same night.

Directors for 'Seven Year Itch'

George Dixon of Dakota circle, and Mrs. Louis Phillippi of Clarendon road, both of Wing Lake, are director and assistant director, respectively, of Ridgedale Players' opening play of the season, "The Seven Year Itch".

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m., Oct. 31, Nov. 1, 7 and 8. Sunday performances on Nov. 2 and 9 will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the playhouse, 8501 West Ten Mile road.

Buffet . . . Supper . . . Shower

A buffet-supper-shower at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club this evening will honor bride-elect Janice DeMann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George DeMann of South Clarendon, Mrs. Robert Wilde of Bloomfield Glens, will be hostess for the miscellaneous shower to which she has invited a dozen couples.

Janice will become the bride of Richard Murrie of Lake Forest, Ill. Nov. 8, at Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church, Detroit. A reception will follow at the Boat club.

For One Or Another Evening

Many Birmingham-Bloomfield members are planning to entertain groups or foursomes on one or another evening during the gay six-night dinner, dancing, floor show gala at the Detroit Athletic club, which opens Friday and runs through the 30th.

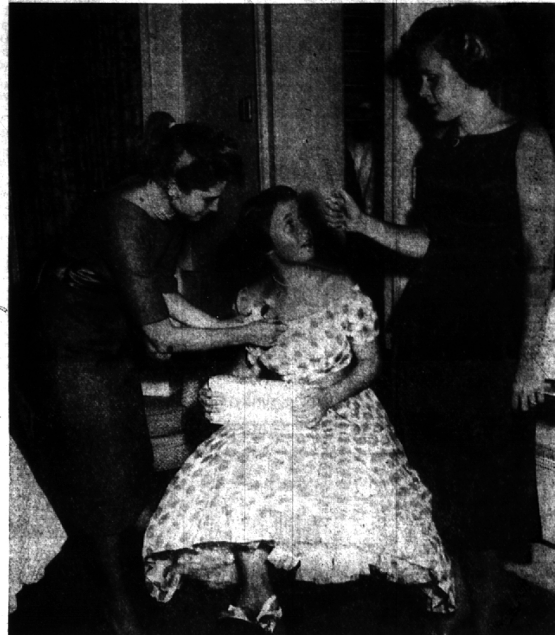

Nadja Witkowska, coloratura soprano, will be the show star. Miss Witkowska, a native Detroit who's career took her to New York some years back, has distinguished herself in operatic roles as well as in lighter types of song. It will be a return appearance at the DAC for the young singer.

Dinner-dancing and dancing after the 9:30 o'clock entertainment will be to the music of the Seymour Hoffman orchestra.

Among those from Birmingham-Bloomfield with reservations for the opener are the John Planners, whose guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Phillip R. Flanders and the Carvel Traxlers; the Paul John Cooleys, the Gordon C. Applequists, and the Richard S. Kelleys.

The Albert G. Nancarrow have chosen Saturday for their party of 24, and others with tables for their groups that evening are the Fred E. Bigelows, the Edward Hendersons, the William S. McNarys, and the Bernard Zinns. A few of those on succeeding evenings are the Judge W. Beardens, the Robert A. Taggarts, and the Sidney Norwoods.

Cotillion Dancers

In the Powder Room

BLOOMFIELD HILLS—Over-sized black escorts, the couples danced to the music of Dave Farley. Host and hostesses for the evening were the Norman J. Fredericks, the Clyde Craines, the John Annas, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. Ernest Kern, chairman; and Florence Schoolfield Young, director.

Receiving Line

Greeting guests at the entrance of the ballroom are (from left) Betsy Wright, Ray Sokolov, Sherry Gaffey, Cy Osborne, Sandy Dusenbury and Neil Mosher. Students attending the dance were from Kingswood, Cranbrook, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, University of Detroit, Immaculate, Detroit and Bloomfield Country Day, Sacred Heart Convent and Shrine.

Turkish Way

Turkish exchange student, Ercan Sonkaya, keeps 'hep to the jive' with his date, Meta Reynolds. Arriving at the home of the Richard Browns on North Cranbrook road, Bloomfield township, in August, Ercan will live in Birmingham until next year. He is a senior at Birmingham high and Meta is a junior. Highlight of the evening was songs done in Turkish by Ercan.

When the clock struck midnight, Ercan and his date joined his American brother, Bill Brown and Sandra Davis, for an early breakfast.

A HAND-KNITTED SWEATER MONTHLY is the requirement for membership in "Save the Children Federation." Faithful volunteer workers for 19 years are (from left) Mrs. Gotfred Knudsen, Mrs. Knud Jensen and Mrs. Axel Christensen.

Danish Women's Smorgasbord To Benefit 'Save the Children'

Since 1939 a group of devoted volunteers have continuously met in members' homes, giving their time and effort to humanitarian work. The Danish Women's Volunteer Service first worked for the American Red Cross making bundles for Great Britain in 1945 their project became a Save the Children Federation.

In order to be a member you must bring in at least one hand-knitted sweater monthly, and many bring in two of these sweaters.

Patterns such as dogs and ships are knitted into the handmade articles. Ever so often the group receives enthusiastic letters from recipients expressing their delight. Garments are directed to the country where the need is the greatest. At this time Greenland will receive shipment.

SUNDAY, Oct. 25, the Danish Women will put on a "smorgasbord" from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Redempter Lutheran church on West Maple for the benefit of Save the Children Federation.

In order that everyone will have an opportunity to see the work finished by this organization's labor of love, there will be a display of the garments in the church. Members of the Naomi guild of the church, under the chairmanship of Mrs. John W. Allen, will act as hostess.

Mrs. Alfred E. Grann of Oakhills drive, Bloomfield township, is chairman of the project and founder of the Danish Women's Volunteer service organization. She serves on the board of the national Save the Children Federation and frequently attends its board meetings in New York.