Couple Exchange Vows At Holy Name Church

Holy Name church was the scene Saturday morning for the marriage of Patricia Ann Bauer and James Peter Leonard. The Rev. Magr. Eugene Paddock performed the 10:30 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bauer of Glen-gary road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Leonard of Hill circle.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was fashioned of tissue taffeta in cameo ivory featuring an empress bodice and long traditionally tapered sleeves. Pearls and iridescent paillettes frosted a panel of embroidered alencon lace which echoed a rose pattern down the front of the dome-shaped skirt, which belled in places and spread from a half sash with bowknot and streamers to a chapel train.

A court cap of jeweled lace held in place her tared veil of silk illusion and she carried a cascade of eucharist lilies and phalaenopsis orchids.

Beverly Marie Bauer served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Peggy Lynn Bauer, Janet O'Connell, Imogene Haenn and Suzanne Lemser.

Engagement Announced

Mrs. Joseph deBruyn of George street, Birmingham, announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Ann Neff, to the Rev. S. Neale Morgan. He is the son of Mrs. Josephine Morgan of Kittanning, Pa., and Dwight Morgan, Jr., of California.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the University of Colorado and her fiancé is a graduate of Columbia university and the Berkeley Divinity school. He is assistant rector at Christ church in Georgetown, Washington, D. C.

A December wedding is planned.

ATTENDANTS were gowned in emerald taffeta with hemlines drawn up in center with a bow. They carried fall leaves and fuji mums.

Robert Hoffman stood as best man and ushers were Leo Foy, Jr., Michael and Edward Foy, Frederick Shadrick, and Eugene Bego.

Mother of the bride wore a brown lace sheath and Mrs. Leonard selected a dusty rose lace

MRS. JAMES LEONARD dress. Both mothers pinned flowers to their purses.

FOLLOWING a reception at the Birmingham Country club, the newlyweds left for Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. The new Mrs. Leonard changed to a green and black basket weave suit for traveling.

Party Benefits Crippled Adults

Alpha Delta Pi alumnae will gather Wednesday at the Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County to sponsor a party for the crippled young adults. With last year's party as a guide, they are hoping to make it an even more enjoyable event for the "Happy Friendship Club."

Bruss Martyn, disc jockey and sports announcer on WCAR, will furnish the entertainment with games, prizes and refreshments to follow. Mrs. Glen Dreisbach and

Mrs. Milton Brieger, co-chairman of the event, will be assisted by sorority alumnae from Detroit and suburbs.

ALONG with a yearly benefit bridge and handwork at meetings, this party is one of the gratifying ways that the alumnae work for their national philanthropy, The Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc.

Others in the area that will be assisting at the party are: Mariene
