“Trick or treat!”

Sure, there's fun in sharing, particularly on this magic night when neighborhoods echo to the shouts of half-pint ghosts and goblins. This year, in Birmingham, each of us will have a chance to share our Halloween fellowship beyond our own block.

The League for the Handicapped is selling “Begging Bags” in which the youngsters can conveniently tote home their loot. They cost just 50 cents and can be used as litter bags when Halloween is past. You'll help your kids, keep our city clean and, most important, help the handicapped to help themselves.

Come in today—or order by phone if you wish.

Chapel Train Accents Satin Bridal Gown

Nancy Kay Bears wore a princess style gown of lustrous satin with a chapel length train for her marriage to William Peter Kelley on Saturday. The 11 o'clock double-ring ceremony took place in the Shrine of the Little Flower.

A lace formed the sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves, which accented the bell-shaped gown. A shell of matching lace and satin, embroidered with seed pearls, held in place her fingertip veil of French silk illusion. She carried orchids and stephanotis on a white prayerbook.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark E. Bears of Hawthorne, Birmingham. Her husband's parents are the Clement J. Kelleys of Royal Oak.

SUE Bears was her sister's maid of honor in a sapphire blue gown. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses.

Wearing identical frocks were bridesmaids Patricia Spencer, Julie Kelley and Karen Johnson.

Gregory Frederick, Jr., was best man. Seating the guests were Robert Mitchell, Robert Morrow, Hugh Morrow and Fred Bears.

Mrs. Bears wore a sheath gown of chantilly lace over blue satin and Mrs. Kelley chose a royal blue velvet sheath. Both mothers had cymbidium orchids.

After a wedding breakfast at Devon Gables the couple left for Canada and New York State. When they return they will make their home in Royal Oak.
