The Norman Terrys Return From Vacation in East

The Norman Terrys and daughter, Patricia, of Dover Court spent 10 glorious days traveling through the East. In Massachusetts they stopped at Boston, then on to visit Mrs. Joseph Willis of Hobrook and Mrs. Donald Whitaker of Randolph, sisters of Mrs. Terrys. They then traveled through Maine, with its colorful inns, fishing villages and breathtaking coastline.

A few days were spent touring the beautiful countryside of New Hampshire and Vermont. One of the Vermont highlights was the trip taken up the ski lift in a swaying closed gondola to the top of Wild Cat Mountain. From there they viewed the Atlantic Ocean.

On their return Mrs. Terry attended a luncheon at the Forest Lake Country club where she was awarded the first prize of a medal and bracelet for the 54-hole Golf Medal Championship.

The bags were then quickly packed again for the weekend of hunting near Lincoln, Mich., for partridge and woodcock.

The Lawrence Prices of Orchard Hill drive have returned home after taking a scenic train trip to California. While in Palo Alto they visited their daughter and son-in-law, Lieutenant and Mrs. George J. Nichols and their eight week old daughter, Susan.

Side trips were taken to Los Angeles, Monterey and San Francisco, just outside San Francisco Bay they toured the "Ranger" with their son-in-law. The Ranger is the largest ship in the world and can accommodate 20,000 people.

The Edward Heins of Weather-vane drive spent five busy days in New York city a week ago. Accompanying them on the trip were Dr. and Mrs. Robert Jones of Farmington. One evening was spent at the Copia Cabana where Jerry Lewis and Tony Arden were appearing and another evening was spent at the Latin Quarter. They attended the plays of "My Fair Lady" and "Jamaica" and viewed President Eisenhower's Caravan.

They stopped in Philadelphia, Pa., where they visited Heins' mother, Mrs. Edward Heins, Sr.

The Milan Pattons of Highwood drive motored to Chicago last weekend, visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Mikulich, who have built a new home there. The Pat-tons were interested in the new home as it was patterned after their own new home on Highwood.

Hosting a duplicate bridge club recently were the Tom Towlers of Dalestord. Their guests were the John Millers, the Donald Davidson, the Robert Stannbergs and the Bruce Butzers, all of Birmingham.

The M. J. Greens of North Adams road have been motoring through the East for the past three weeks. Much of their time was spent touring Massachusetts with a few days held in reserve for New York city.

Moving into their new home on Lawner drive this week are the George Platzer of Derby road Birmingham. They have two children, Jeff, 8, and Jim, 4. Platzer is a research engineer with Chrysler Corp. Among the family's hobbies are swimming, golf, horse back riding and skating.

The neighborhood will not be new to the Platzers as their closest neighbors are the M. J. Greens.

The Bruce Butzers of Glyndebourne road entertained at dinner last Saturday evening. Their guests were the Jack Farleys, of Beach road, and the Kip Kolands of Ramothur.

The Alfred Holcombs of West Orchard Hill drive were among the many couples attending the Wednesday Dance club of Pontiac at the Birmingham Country club last week. Joining them were Mrs. Holcomb's parents, the L. R. Coles of Pontiac, who have been members of the dance club for the past 35 years.

Kathy Covell, daughter of the Charles Covells of Dover road, celebrated her sixth birthday with an after school party last Thursday. After viewing Looney Tunes and taking part in a few games the six little guests gathered around the musical birthday cake centered on the birthday table. Enjoying ice cream and cake were Amy Sutton, Patty Niklos, Robert Vonderhaar, Edmund and Emily Arbas, and Kathy's brother, Charles, Jr.

United Foundation Torch Drive workers in the North Adams area, north of East Long Lake road, are making their house a terrific place this week. Mrs. Edward Smith is the area chairman and her volunteer workers are Mrs. Carl Qualman of Lenox road, Mrs. Howard E. M. Hough of Tisbury lane.

The Spartans of the Little Football league played a terrific game and were in the lead throughout the game, only to lose to the Tigers in the last few minutes 18-13.

The Indians came through with flying colors in a shutout game against the Hawkeys 12-0. The Willicats lost to the Hoosiers 26-0.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gray of 1776 Haynes? They moved from Dayton, Ohio, on July 1. They have two sons, Stephen and Douglas. The Grants enjoy bridge.

You are probably right, Hans, but the people don't want to buy them until the weather is cool and der—oops—the available varieties are depleted. So, dere.

Combination of bulbs can produce surprising effects as witness:—

Cusiana (a beautiful 8 inch tulip of Cherry-Red with yellow interior) rising above the shorter, exquisite Lemon-Yellow Kaufmaniana Tulip; the First.

Beersheba, a pure White Daffodil with a sprawling bed of Blue Scilla Siberica in less formal spot than close to the house.

The panic produced by the Bishop, Queen of the Night and Sweet Harmony.

Single, bright Yellow Jonquil undt Chinodoxa (another lovely Blue job).

Ancynensis (Yellow) and Haarlem Gem (Blue) tiny Crocus species for Rock Gardens and other Nooks and Crannies.

King Alfred (a regal Yellow Daff, with Muscari Americum (a good Blue Grape Hyacinth) as the ground cover. Hard to beat!

Mother's Day with Marshall Haig. (Dass ist nicht our Bernice Haag).

Judging from the decline in sales of grass seed and fertilizer, we believe plenty of lawn troubles will develop in '59. We are not concerned about the seed, but we insist that "food" for the lawn is exactly necessary as "food" for the child.

Lack of food makes for lack of stamina; lack of strength to grow, and greater susceptibility to disease and debilitating influences. SCIENCE IS SPEAKING.

Would anyone like a pair of BINOCULARS for birdwatching? If so, please let us know and we will get them for you. A slick Christmas Present.
