

Brownie Troops Reorganize Into Intermediate Group

BLOOMFIELD WEST — Meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Mitchell Middleton last week a group of fifth grade mothers offered their help in the reorganization of former Brownie troops 753 and 159 into intermediate troop 753.

Leaders of the troop will be Mrs. H. E. Miegel and Mrs. Middleton, with Mrs. Joseph Pais, Mrs. Courville Morrow and Mrs. F. W. Boyton serving on the troop committee.

Mrs. Miegel, who has recently moved to Old Post Road from Royal Oak, is in her eighteenth year as a member of the Girl Scouts of America and is at present chairman of the Day Camp Committee of Southern Oakland Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Middleton, a former leader of Brownie troop 159, is also leader of Walnut Lake's eight grade troop, Troop 753, with approximately twenty nine members, will meet Tuesday afternoons on the stage of Walnut Lake School.

Scouts to Attend Camp Near Howell

BLOOMFIELD WEST — Troop B-17, sponsored by the Men's Club of the Kirt in the Hills, will spend Oct. 24-26 attending Camp-o-ree at D-A scout ranch near Howell.

Scoutmaster Sam Sturman and Chuck Hendricks, assistant scoutmaster, will accompany the boys.

Bloomfield West Social Briefs

There were 25 spanking clean cars in the Walnut Lake area Saturday, due to the efforts of the Walnut Lake Boy's club, who set up a car washing service in the school parking lot.

Proceeds from this venture will finance a ski trip to northern Michigan.

The boys are now working on plans for their annual Christmas dance.

An interesting visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hans M. Hierta, Halyard road, is his aunt Hareness Ingrid Rappe of Stockholm, Sweden. The Baroness will visit in the west before returning to her home.

The Grandfield group of the Oakland County Extension Service of Michigan State university met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Clarence Myrland on Eastmore road.

Fifty years of married life was celebrated Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. George Drake at an open house hosted by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Drake, of Clarkston.

The Drakes, who were married in Chillicothe, Ohio, have been residents of Walnut Lake for many years. Among the many guests were "old neighbors" from the Walnut Lake area, Mr. and Mrs.

Walnut Lake Girl Scouts Plan Camping Trips

Dan Shanahan was pleasantly surprised last Wednesday when some of his teenaged friends arrived at his Eastmore road home for a dinner party to celebrate his sixteenth birthday.

Guests who danced away the evening were Sue Allen and Lee Roberts, Lynn Roberts and Steve Margrove, Joyce Kristofsky and Chuck Hendricks and Dan's date, Marge MacLean.

Volunteer solicitors gathered at the home of Mrs. Fred Parsons, district chairman of Meadowlake, to enjoy a cup of coffee and receive their United Foundation envelopes and information.

Workers include Mrs. Walter Gerick, Mrs. Chester Bowie, Mrs. Joseph LaPlante, Mrs. John Orrio, Mrs. Carl Miesel, Mrs. Thomas Holmes and Mrs. Frank Balanaves.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Peterson of Halyard road and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevenson of Cartwright left Sunday to attend the National Association of Assessors officers convention at the Farmington township in the same capacity.

Peter Peterson recently retired from the Detroit board of assessors and is now serving with Farmington township in the same capacity.

Mrs. L. A. Habric of Valley Spring Drive will hostess a Republican coffee for some 40 guests at 9 a.m. Oct. 27.

Among the guests will be Bill Bloomfield, Farrell Roberts and Tom Murphy.

Walnut Lake Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Art Johnson were guests Saturday at Mr. and Mrs. Keith Bliss at the Birmingham Country club for breakfast. They later left by bus with other club members and guests to attend the 8th city of Michigan-Navy game. They later returned to the club for dinner and dancing.

The monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Colonial Estates Homeowners and Property association was held at the Labser road home of Pat Patton. Plans for a new year's party were discussed for a New Year's Eve dance to be held at the Auburn Community club.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cunningham returned last Sunday from a trip to New York City. They attended the fifth reunion of the 8th city of Michigan-Navy Saturday evening at a dinner and dance. They also toured Radio City Music Hall and Greenwich Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Searege of the University of Michigan-Navy gave a meal at the home of Mrs. Larry McDaniel. They joined several other couples at the game. After the game the group gathered at the Gypsy Village in Detroit for dinner.

Mrs. Stuart Henderson, the district chairman of the United Foundation Torch Drive, had an afternoon coffee for the workers. Among those attending were Mrs. Art Wilson, Mrs. Joe Slogar and Mrs. David Hill, all of Colonial Estates.
