

Lay Corner-Stone At Shepherd King

The corner-stone of the new Church of the Shepherd King, W. Maple and Middlebelt, was laid at a special ceremony last Sunday.

Rev. Karl Boehmke, pastor of the mission congregation, conducted the special services and Rev. Richard S. Tuchmeyer, pastor of Grace Lutheran church, Pontiac, preached the sermon.

The rite of the corner-stone laying was performed by David T. Schwinn, president of the congregation, and Walter O. Gaertner, director of the Mission board of the English district Lutheran church of the Missouri Synod.

FOLLOWING the corner-stone laying, each member of the congregation placed a brick into the wall of the building to symbolize the part they had in building the church.

Ground for the new building, planned by Charles Stade and Assoc. of Park Ridge, Ill., was broken Sept. 7. The building is the first of three units planned for the seven-acre site.

Fall Rummage Sale

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. James Episcopal church, W. Maple and Chester streets, will sponsor a fall rummage sale at the church Nov. 6 from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. and Nov. 7 from 9 a. m. to noon. The sale will be held in the church mercantile.

Clothing for Needy

The Christian Welfare committee of the Church of the Shepherd King, W. Maple at Middlebelt, is sponsoring a five-week drive to obtain good usable clothing for distribution to the needy. Anyone with clothing for the drive can contact Don Karrow, committee chairman.

Panel Discussion

A panel discussion on "Developing Peaceful Attitudes and World Mindfulness in Our Children" by three members of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom will highlight the Nov. 5 meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service. The meeting will be held in the fellowship hall of the First Methodist church.

REV. FALK will be in charge of the youth division at First Methodist, which encompasses the junior and senior high students and the young married people of the congregation.

This young looking minister is also young in actions. He won a letter in baseball while at Drew University and hopes to play on a softball team in Birmingham this summer.

HE MARRIED the former Gayle Slater who attended Drew University with him for a time, but transferred to Stetson University, Florida, when her parents moved there.

Between school semesters in January of 1956, he jumped into his car and drove to Florida where he and Gayle were married.

Mrs. Falk stayed at the parsonage at Lee Methodist church while the Reverend finished school and at the same time was nothing new for this industrious young man though.

While he was attending the theological school at Drew University, Madison, N. J., he drove 186 miles every weekend to Lee, Mass., where he was minister of the Lee Methodist church and the nearby Grace Methodist church in Lenox Dale.

New Youth Minister Is Young in Looks, Action

Comments of "you look too young to be a minister," or "you're so young" are nothing new to Rev. Robert F. Falk, new youth minister of the First Methodist church.

Rev. Falk, who is 26 years old, is young in looks but old in experience. He was minister at four churches before coming to the Birmingham area three weeks ago.

He came here from Cold Spring, N. Y., where he was minister of the Methodist church of Cold Spring and at the same time minister of the South Highland Methodist church in Garrison, N. Y.

BEING minister of two churches

at the same time was nothing new for this industrious young man though.

While he was attending the theological school at Drew University, Madison, N. J., he drove 186 miles every weekend to Lee, Mass., where he was minister of the Lee Methodist church and the nearby Grace Methodist church in Lenox Dale.

Dr. Charles H. Shaw, instructor at the Detroit Bible Institute and its evening school director, will give an orientation of the 23rd Psalm, illustrated by colored slides, at the Nov. 2nd, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. services of the United Brethren church, 14 Mile at Edgewood.

37 Choir Boys Sing With Paris Group

Thirty-seven choir boys from Our Lady Queen of Martyrs school, under the direction of Miss Catherine Skelley, sang at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral Oct. 18 with the famous "Little Singers of Paris." Most Reverend Henry Donnelly, Auxiliary Bishop of Detroit, presided at the Solemn High Mass.

Selections other than the Mass Proper were Sarcoedus et Pontifex, Praise and Glory.

The boys were received and invited in the International Federation of Boys Choirs. Dennis Ellis accepted the symbol of the organization, a wooden cross with a Pin X medallion, from Bishop Donnelly.

Miss Skelley has planned a special Christmas program for Our Lady's Little Singers' next appearance.

Dr. Grey to Speak At Monthly Dinner

The Supper club of the Congregational church of Birmingham will have its monthly dinner Nov. 7, at 6:45 p. m. at the church.

Dr. Alfred Grey, interim minister, will speak on his years of experience as chaplain of a woman's prison in California.

A chicken dinner with all the trimmings will be prepared and served by the Supper club committee and they ask that reservations be called in to Mrs. Frank Hilton by Nov. 3.

Done Your Christmas Shopping Yet?

The women of the First Methodist church will hold their bi-annual bazaar Nov. 13 from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. This is the largest project for the women this year and many things are working on it since last spring. A large assortment of aprons, baked goods, candy, gifts and fall and Christmas decorations will be sold at the bazaar. In addition a snack bar will be open all day, and a nursery will be available for toddlers, Mrs. Richard Hamester (left), chairman of fall and Christmas decorations, and Mrs. Philip Cartwright, general chairman of the bazaar, are shown making some of the many decorations which will be sold.

Famous Choir Visits Detroit

The First Methodist and Congregational churches of Birmingham and several other area churches are sponsoring a visit by the Westminster choir of Princeton, N. J.

The choir will appear in Detroit tomorrow at 8:15 p. m. at the Westminster Presbyterian church, Outer Drive at Hubbell.

They will present a concert comprised of works by Palestrina, Byrd, Bach, Vivaldi, Handel and others.

WESTMINSTER CHOIR has appeared in most of the key cities of Europe, Asia and the Orient, Canada and Cuba, as well as the United States.

Three times the choir has been commissioned to fulfill the function of good-will ambassadors. Former President Herbert Hoover and the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt each bestowed this honor.

More recently, the choir completed a five-months globe-circling tour sponsored jointly by American National Theatre and Academy and the Department of State.

FOUNDED more than 37 years ago by Dr. John Finley Williamson, the choir is composed of students in Westminster Choir College, Princeton, N. J.

Tryouts for membership in the choir are held annually. No membership is self-perpetuating. Each student must earn his membership throughout the season by maintaining a high academic average in spite of the demands on his time made by touring and professional appearances.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new-casts of the society editor about them.
