

Halloween's the Ghost To Say the Least

Area junior teenagers started off the first social event of the season with a costume dance party at the Anthony Foley home on Vernon drive. The downstairs recreation room was decorated with orange and black streamers, corn stalks, balloons and Halloween motifs. The group was entertained with games, stunts, dancing and helped themselves to cider, doughnuts, candy, popcorn, potato chips and soft drinks. Costume prizes were awarded to Dolores Febraro, Linda Wood and Claude Young. Merry-makers included Christine Foley, Joanne Meloché, Kathy Longway, Camille Brunk, Linda Wood, Dolores Febraro, Jari Anderson, Claude Young, Dale Pheoch, Dennis Clark, Len Johnson, Kees Sprinkle, Ron Carlson, Alan Wright and Dennis King. Champagne was Mrs. Dallas Sprinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Foley, Mrs. Arthur Febraro, Mrs. Alexander Nead and Mrs. Charles Young.
