

Chalmers Wing Laker's Horse Takes Futurity Race

Social Briefs
Mrs. Elwood Engel of Franklin road recently entertained 20 guests at a farewell brunch for Mrs. John Reinhart of Birmingham. The Reinharts are moving to Pittsburgh.

Nation, two-year-old colt, born and bred at Duntreath Farm, Lexington, Ky., was winner Oct. 18 in the $25,000 Breeder's Futurity race held at Keeneland track, Lexington.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Engel hosted a dinner for 22 couples, all business associates of Engel at Ford Motor company. Cold and refreshments provided the seasonal decor with an organist at the Hammond during dinner.

The beautiful thoroughbred, born of Knight's Gift, is owned by T. A. Grisson of Lathrup and son James Grisson of Carey lane, Wing lake, who is racing the horse this fall. For winning this race Grissons received a gold julep cup. Jockey for Nation is J. Combs who rode him again last Saturday in the Garden State race at Camden, N. J. In this, the richest race in the world, Nation led during the first half, lost speed and did not place.

Back from a six-month sojourn in Europe are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Imboden, parents of Mrs. Elwood Engel.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grisson have enjoyed these two races for the past two weeks, being entertained royally at trainers' and owners' events preceding the race.
