WILLIAM R. SHAW

DONALD J. BEVIS

Two Local Men to Speak at Institute

Two local certified public accountants will speak at the 71st annual meeting of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, it was announced today by the national organization.

William R. Shaw, Bloomfield Hills, and Donald J. Bevis, Birmingham, will attend the meeting along with over 1,500 certified public accountants from all over the country. The meeting will be held in Detroit from Oct. 15-18.

Shaw will discuss the problems of determining fees and billing clients in a firm of CPAs. Bevis will discuss the reporting standards for special types of financial statements.

Shaw, a partner in the accounting firm of Shaw, Olsen & Blommer, is a member of the AICPA advisory board on the economics of accounting practices. Bevis, a partner in the Detroit office of Touche, Niven, Bailey & Smart, is a member of the governing body of the institute. He is a member of the executive committee and chairman of the committee on auditing procedure.

B'field Hills Man Director at GM

Walter K. Jensen, 3861 Myrtle Valley drive, Bloomfield Hills, has been appointed director of Parts Fabrication of the General Motors Corp. The announcement was made by Charles A. Chayne, General Motors vice president in charge of the Engineering staff.

Jensen has been with GM 25 years. A native of Denmark, he received his training in the Institute of Technology, Copenhagen. He came to the United States in 1922 and joined Fisher Body Division in 1933.

He is succeeding Carl H. Jensen, (no relation) who is retiring after 32 years with GM.

Imperial Offers Advanced Styling

The 1969 Imperial Sedan is one of four body styles produced in the new Imperial plant in Detroit. It has a new 350-horsepower engine, increased interior room for passengers and many new optional comfort features include front swivel seats. Imperial also-builds four-door and two-door hard-tops and convertibles. The new Chryslers will be at Hodges Inc., 360 S. Woodward, Oct. 24.

Get New Radios

Transistor radios were awarded this week to two women as a result of their attending the introduction of the new 1969 Buick cars at Sumner Motor Sales, Inc., Birmingham. The women were Mrs. Alice Stawson, 328 Larches, Birmingham, and Mrs. B. E. Schaffer, 5748 Blandford, Bloomfield Hills. Thousands of people read The Eclectic Classified Ads. So remember, if you want to see that hard-to-get article, advertise it in the Want Ad section of The Birmingham Eclectic.
