Skirt-Shorts Make Bid for Popularity

Once again the pleated skirt-shorts make a winning bid for popularity with the cool, high-school and teen crowd.

Bright clean plaids and subdued menswear flannel lead in fabrics with checks and stripes running close second.

A majority of the new fall versions favor the Bermuda - short length, although a particularly smart shorty-kilt is an unpressed pleated, knee-length model called the "play-skirt."

The chemise influence is apparent in a style with permanent side pleats released from a fitted, band-ed torso.

No matter what the length, these cropped skirts are due to continue the popularity they established this past summer.

lamps and a low, cleanly styled body, topped by a slim-line roof. Vista models are also featured in the Bonneville and Star Chief series. The new models will go on sale Oct. 9 at Wilson Pontiac-Cadillac Inc., 1350 N. Woodward, according to Fred Walker, general manager.
