Mortimer-Whitlam Married Saturday

Deborah Ann Whitlam walked down the aisle in a lace ballerina gown for her marriage to David Albert Mortimer Saturday afternoon at Grosse Pointe Congregational church.

The Rev. Marcus Johnson performed the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Whitlam of Grosse Pointe, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Mortimer of Shipman drive, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN featured a rolled neckline with sequins and pearls and very full skirt. A head-dress of sequins and pearls secured her short veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet consisted of white carnations and ivy.

Kathy Whitlam, maid of honor, wore an aqua satin gown with head-dress of braided velvet with small tulle veil of matching color. Bridesmaids Elaine Larter, appeared in a beige satin gown with braided velvet head-dress. They carried bouquets of yellow fuchsia.

MRS. DAVID MORTIMER
The newlyweds will reside in Birmingham.

JOHN WALKER stood as best man and escorting the guests were Robert Omtvedt, Don Walsh, Bill Mortimer and Tom Mortimer.

Mother of the bride chose a blue lace gown with matching sequin hat and an orchid. Mrs. Mortimer selected a beige silk gown with small brown velvet hat and pink sweetheart roses.

Club's Anniversary

Alumnae, friends and mothers of students at St. Mary's college, Notre Dame, Ind., celebrated Tuesday the 51st anniversary of Detroit St. Mary's club and the 114th anniversary of the founding of St. Mary's. Mrs. Joseph Depman of Birmingham was committee member for the program.

DAR State Board Attends Meeting in Traverse City

Mrs. E. D. Longnecker of North Glengary is having a busy month. Being State 2nd Vice Regent for the DAR she and the rest of the state board have visited all the regional meetings in Michigan.

The week of Sept. 15 found them attending meetings in Jackson, Three Rivers, Grand Rapids, Saginaw and Pontiac. This evening they were entertained at dinner in the Royal Oak home of the State Regent, Mrs. Roy V. Barnes. Mrs. Longnecker had Mrs. Dale D. Libby of Dearborn, the state director of DAR and Mrs. Harry N. Deyo of Plymouth, the state chaplain, as overnight guests before they all attended the Pontiac meeting together.

Leaving again Sunday morning for a meeting in Traverse City, they crossed Lake Michigan by ferry to save time and catch up on their rest. After celebrating three birthdays with cake and trimmings, the "seas" grew rough—and they lived to regret the celebrations.

Meetings in Menominee, Ironwood, Marquette and Sault Ste. Marie completed their itinerary.

Others from Birmingham attending were Mrs. William H. DeCraff, state treasurer and Mrs. Clarence W. Wacker, general vice president.

Spending her vacation in the Hawaiian islands this summer was Mary Jo Hopkins, daughter of the John Hopkins of Roland drive. Greeted by twelve friends on her arrival she was thrilled with the sixteen leis presented her.

Mary Jo also spent a day and a half in San Francisco, where she stayed at the Mark Hopkins hotel. Seventy folks of all ages met Sept. 14 for a buffet supper in the yard of the William S. Todd of Bruy Lane to say "bon voyage" to their son, Warne, who left for Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. and to the Wendell S. Cloughs of Overhill who way boulevard entertained her bridge group last week. Afternoon guests were Mrs. Gordon Walker, Mrs. William Grimes, Mrs. Richard Kraves, Mrs. S. E. Yass, Mrs. Alden Hazard, Mrs. George Kirchen, Mrs. Richard O'Reilly, Mrs. A. M. Menkel, Mrs. Raymond Lyons, Mrs. M. B. Cather and Mrs. Gerry Marlin.

Recently returned from a visit with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Field in Albuquerque, New Mexico, is Mrs. Daniel LaRue of Wadlington road. While she was gone LaRue made a trip to Memphis, Tennessee and Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Henick and children, Teri, 7 years, Maret, 5 years and Tamara, 4 months have moved to N. Glengary road from Des Moines, Iowa.

Henick is with Ford Motor Co. and the family moved from this area only two years ago.

Albion and University of Michigan are their schools, bridge and golf their hobbies.
