

Cranbrook Corridor

Three seniors, John Butzel, Rick Williams and Ray Sokolow went to Ann Arbor Sept. 29 for the 14th annual Michigan Conference of High School Student Councils.

The object of this meeting was to discuss what student councils around the state are doing and how their activities can be improved.

Five Cranbrook seniors have been named semi-finalists in the 1958-1959 National Merit Scholarship competition. They are Ray Sokolow, Ed Stan, Pete Smith, George Sautb and Don Barnett.

These boys scored among the highest in the contest in which almost 500,000 others in the United States competed for $5,000,000 in scholarship prizes.

The final testing for these semi-finalists will be in January when they take their college boards.

Dropping from last week's survey, "Win Your Love for Me" and "Trickle Trickle" have proven themselves to be one-week hits. "Promise Me Love" (Andy Williams) is evidently off the survey to stay. Coming up fast is "Old MacDonald" (the Chargers) and "Hold It" (Bill Doggett). "You Cheated"—is dropping. "Tom Doody" is hot. New release of "Poor Boy" by the Cardigans—rock bottom. Elvis Presley has announced that he has no plans for a new record in the coming weeks. While Elvis is in the Army, Pat Boone has taken advantage of the situation by putting out records regularly. For My Good Fortune" will get much action across the nation and here in the Detroit area. The clip is also strong.

B'field Hills JHS Lancers Dim Fitzgerald Hopes, 49-6

By CHRIS GRYSOON

Bloomfield Hills junior high Lancers were victorious Oct. 1 over Fitzgerald 49 to 6. The first game of the year was attended by many spectators.

Recently ejected cheerleaders who head the yell were Lynn Schmanaky, Karen McKalpine, Marcey Merrill, Kay Lewis, Lynn Ivey, and Kris Forester. These girls were selected from a group of girls by Miss Sitarick, girls gym teacher.

Instrumental band teacher, Mr. Tilton who has organized a first and second band and a beginners group. There are 40 members in each of the first and second band. There are ten beginners.

The school bands start on the fifth grade for all who are interested.

So far no concerts or assemblies have been planned for the band except the Christmas and spring concert.

The first Student Council meeting was held Oct. 3. Mr. O'Brien is the supervisor of the meetings. The short meeting was attended by the president, Art Tregenza; vice-president, Jack Eddington; secretary, Lynn Ivey, and treasurer, Virginia Van Dyke.

Girls' Field Hockey tryouts were held for the ninth grade team. Approximately 30 girls tried out.
