Barnum JHS Grid Teams Practice at Pierce Field

By PATSY GORDON

Barnum's three ninth grade football teams have been working out at Pierce field. The green team, captained by Fred Muenchinger, includes Ron Mourning, John Arns, Bill Marsh, Fred Clements, Mike Collins, Tom Thompson, Forrest Moyer, Chuck Tischer, Bill Watkins, Pete King, Bill Gelo, Tim Tolle, John Perry and Dave Kenjoeki.

Captained by Bob Glime, the blue team includes Bill Faulds, Hugh Jamison, Chuck Moyer, Tom Marshall, Chuck Cooper, Dick Grossman, John McCracken, Pete Hutton, Pete Sobelton, George Dweilley, Jon Miller, George John and Geoff Gilbert.

The Presidents' club had its election of officers this week. The following students were elected: Franco Quillan, president; Roxy Peterson, vice-president; Earl Smith, secretary; and Tim Tolle, sergeant-at-arms. The Presidents club is composed of the president of each homeroom. Mrs. Kennedy advises this group.

This club will sponsor a Torch Drive fair Oct. 24 to raise funds for the Torch Drive. It will be held during the last two hours of the day. Students will attend in two shifts. Each homeroom is planning a booth for the fair.

The selection of the cast for the ninth grade play has almost been completed and the actors are busy rehearsing. The play to be performed is "The Tantomir." Terry Peterson, Helen Collins, Kathy Rubin, Sue Peters, Bill Schoonmaker, Wes Grube, Beay Biann, Ron Mourning and John Thompson are the students who have been selected for the play.

B-Hi bowling began Oct. 4. Girls, who sign up for team bowling, play two games each Friday. There is also open bowling available for girls who cannot attend every week.

Kingswood Column

Kingswood fully realized that another year of school was under way when the seniors were given their Kingswood rings Sept. 26. The class of 1959 chose Miss Joan McBride to present them with their rings at the ceremony.

In assembly Oct. 3, the Kingswood cheerleaders for the year were announced. Val Armstrong, Jeanne Buffum, Ann Foster, Hanley Bird, Carol Yamasaki and Vicki Siegel received the traditional black-watch plaid kilt, and Linda Wessels closed the assembly with a speech on school spirit.

There is much excitement among the juniors in their preparation for the Autumn Festival which is Oct. 18. This is under the direction of Miss Ruth Furstenberg, Miss Bertha Seifert and Miss Peggie Jones, the latter being a new member of the faculty this year. The theme of the festival is known only to the juniors and mystery posters in the halls have aroused much curiosity. In the next week the secret will be revealed in a surprise assembly.

Barons Beaten but Spirit Survives

Unfortunately, Bloomfield's Barons lost their second game of the season last Friday. Northville shot us out 28-0, but if football games could be won by spirit alone, I'm sure that Bloomfield would have swamped Northville's eleven.

Friday almost everyone wore blue and white, the school colors, and at the pep assembly the gym was shaking furiously from the cheers. Better luck this week, team!

Well, I really grieved last week. I loudly cried out that the student council was having an after-school dance before the game, but I think that's this week? Last week the junior class gave their first dance of the year, the "kick-off", with the Squires supplying the entertainment. A moderate success, it would really be great if you all came to the next dance.

Last Thursday two of Mr. Gorte's senior English classes were visited by Professor Stevens of the University of Michigan. The visit was in conjunction with a plan to give future college students a taste of college procedure. Both classes are writing things on English essays.

Looking around: Louise Liu held a party Friday night following the Junior class dance for friends in the senior class. Larry Erdman and Peter Tromsdorff, two of the many guests, were unanimously chosen hula-hoop champions, and the fireplaces Saturday night a party was given by Ed Billings. A light dinner was served and every-one attending enjoyed themselves, Hoggan.
