Mr. and Mrs. Groves Honeymoon in Nassau

A wedding trip to Nassau in the Bahamas followed the marriage of Mary Frances Miller to Michael Donald Groves Saturday in St. Andrew's Episcopal church in Ann Arbor. The Rev. W. R. Schutze performed the ceremony in the presence of 250 guests.

Parents of the newweds are Dr. and Mrs. Norman Miller of Ann Arbor and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Groves of Frank street, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE walked down the aisle in a white peau de soie gown featuring a scooped neckline with yoke of re-embroidered alencon lace and chapel train. A Juliet cap of matching lace secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and Stephanotis.

Gretchen Slenger was the bride's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Darbee Groves, sister of the groom, Myrna Martz, Mrs. Cillon Hill and Mrs. Nick Zalka.

Attendants preceded the bride in waltz length gowns of gold Italian silk with small matching headbands with face veils. They carried bouquets of white flowers.

NICK PAPPADAKIS stood as best man. Seating the guests were Norman F. Miller, Jr., brother of the bride; Lloyd Otto, Paul Spital and James Schultz.

Mother of the bride chose a dior blue lace dress and Mrs. Groves selected a smoke-beige chiffon sheath.

Guests were greeted in the garden at home of the bride's parents. The newweds will make their home in Ypsilanti.

MRS. LARRY HOEDEMA

To Make Home in Ypsilanti

Franklin Community church was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Barbara Joan Smith and Larry Allen Hoedema. Rites were performed by the Rev. Searles.

The bride wore a floor length gown of Italian taffeta over satin featuring long sleeves, portrait neckline and appliques of matching lace scattered in the skirt. The bridal cap was of matching lace with a fingertip veil of French silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of white flowers.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Wendell Smith of Inkster road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hoedema of Belleville.

Janet Smith was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Joyce Phy and Mrs. Gerald McQuaid. Attendants were gowns of aqua peau de soie in princess lines with portrait necklines. They carried white mums.

Donald Walters stood as best man. Ushers were Jerry Hoedema, David Lucas and Bruce Smith.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE wore a cinnamon chantilly lace over satin dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Hoedema selected a teal blue chantilly lace over satin with white accessories. Both mothers had orchids.

The new Mrs. Hoedema changed to a blue wool jersey sheath dress for her trip to Northern Michigan. The young couple will make their home in Ypsilanti, where both will be students at Eastern Michigan college.
