Couple Repeat Vows In Evening Ceremony

First Baptist church in Birmingham was the scene Saturday evening for the marriage of Kathleen Pomeroy and Donald Arthur Beaudry. Dr. Emil Kontz performed the candlelight ceremony in the presence of 400 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fraser E. Pomeroy of Dorchester road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Beaudry of Flint.

THE BRIDE was gowning in a princess style gown of bouquet taffeta with a chapel length train featuring a sash and neckline and bell shaped skirt. A tiny Juliet shell secured her fingertip veil of French silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli with stephanotis and trailing ivy.

Mary Lu Pomeroy was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Ann McDonald, Nancy Carlisle, Sara Leet, Mrs. David Lowman and Mrs. Walter Ebling. Junior bridesmaid was Kathleen Thompson and flower girl was Nancy Fleming.

ATTENDANTS were gowning in French blue silk organza princess style dresses with scooped necklines. Their headpieces were of matching velvet with circular veils. They carried garnet gladioli buds and trailing ivy. Flower girl wore a blue dress with princess skirt and large bow in the back, velvet ribbons in her hair and a basket of rosebuds were strewn in the bride's path.

ROBERT BEAUDRY, brother of the groom, stood as best man. Seating the guests were Dennis Maxey, Thomas McCarthy, John Lusk and Richard Bean. Junior usher was David Pomeroy.

Mother of the bride chose a matching blue silk organza gown trimmed in alencon lace with a
