Two Posy Parties That Went Straight to Their Heads

Carrots, cabbage and the lowly zinnia went high hat last Monday afternoon when they decorated my lady's bonnet worn at the first fall meetings of the Meadowlake garden club and Walnut Lake branch of the WNFCA.

Cabbage roses in various hues adorned the huge white hat of Meadowlake's president and hostess, Mrs. Arthur Danahy. All the makings of a delicious, chef's salad rested in a wicker basket on the head of treasurer Mrs. John M. Small while an artistic arrangement of green leaves dripping with mountain ash berries perched on the blond head of club secretary, Mrs. Clyde Fulton.

Over on Comfort Drive where Walnut Lake members gathered, their hostess, Mrs. Henry Sahlin greeted her guests wearing a biscuit basket entwined with garden flowers. Capturing the prize for the most original was program chairman, Mrs. W. L. McCane with her red dyed sunflower held securely in place with a huge red bow under her chin.

Mrs. Otto Winkelmann, with her charming German accent, introduced her ideas of a "Kraut" creation; red cabbage with salsa and ivy.

Possibly the most amusing chapeau was designed by Mrs.

H. N. McManus, who admits enjoying the garden club, but not gardening. The fruits of her "labor" were represented by a combination of dandelions, crab grass and one slightly decayed apple.

Both clubs have many interesting programs planned for future meetings, but probably none will offer as much fun and hilarity as was enjoyed Monday afternoon.

Careless Caller Ties Up Phone of Fire Department

FRANKLIN—The villages of the book, William Albee, Franklin Volunteer Fire department commissioner, reported that the whole system of a fire phone for 40 minutes Monday because someone called the fire number, then left the phone off the open line, presumably used by a child. "We urge parents to caution children about always hanging up the phone," Albee said. "In this case, such carelessness could have been disastrous if someone had been desperately trying to reach the fire department for help."

Kiwaniqueens Meet

SOUTHFIELD—Mrs. Farnham Haeger will entertain the Southfield Kiwaniqueens at their first fall meeting Sept. 11 in her home, 21506 Hiawatha.

Park drive, took Carolyn Wallace, daughter of Mr. William Wallace and the late Mrs. Wallace of Royal Oak, as his bride Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hampson of Woodlure returned Wednesday from a brief trip to Montreal where they bid good bye to Hampson's mother as she embarked for Europe.

Excitement is running high at the Franklin Fricker home on Wellington road.

Don Odle, who has had his share of proud moments recently, is riding a special cloud these days now that he has passed his ham radio tests and is assigned call letters K8MDJ for his 150 watt transmitter.
