MRS. PAUL LEAVENWORTH, JR.

Vows Heard In Afternoon Ceremony

Wearing a headdress crocheted by her mother, Patricia Jean Nyberg became the bride of Paul Stephen Leavenworth, Jr., Saturday afternoon in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer. The Rev. Theodore Wuggazer performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 200 guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Axel F. Nyberg of Eastman drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of the senior Leavenworths of Grand Rapids.

FOR HER WEDDING, the bride wore a pure silk waist length gown featuring an Italian lace bodice, short sleeves and round neckline. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and sea oats. Carol Negri, maid of honor, wore a champagne chiffon gown with a cowl neckline. Jan Brady, bridesmaid, wore a bittersweet chiffon and the bride's other attendant, Kay Bolster, wore toast chiffon. They all carried wheat bouquets.

DAVID BALL was best man and ushers were Roger Leavenworth and Ronald Dunbar. Mother of the bride wore a green shantung sheath dress with rose accessories. Mrs. Leavenworth selected a medium blue shantung with rose accessories. Both mothers had orchids. The couple will reside in East Lansing, where the groom is a student at Michigan State university.

Graefield Exchange Group Sets Meeting

"Lasting Beauty of Fur is Only Skin Deep" will be the topic for discussion at the first meeting of the season of the Graefield Exchange group when it meets Wednesday at 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Rolly Mead, 17988 Birchwood.

Newly elected president, Mrs. Leonard Horton, will preside over the business meeting. Other officers are vice president, Mrs. John Leavitt; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Hanson and treasurer, Mrs. Howard Norman.

Mrs. A. Wagner, Dessert Hostess

Delta Delta Delta's Birmingham alumnae chapter will gather for a 230 dessert on Sept. 24, at the Lowell court home of Mrs. Albert Wagner. Mrs. Norman Dieckhoff, president, will introduce Mrs. John Canavan, vice president and official delegate of the group to the 70th anniversary convention held in June at Miami.

Mrs. Canavan's report on the convention will be supplemented by Mrs. Ben Ragland, national finance chairman of Delta Delta Delta, who also attended the convention in an official capacity.

All Deltas living in the area are invited to contact the group. Work has recently begun on a new home for the Wagners at Elk Lake near Traverse City. The whole Wagner family is looking forward with pleasure to the move since they have summered there many years and have become very fond of the area.

4-A THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC Sept. 18, 1958

B'ham Residents Are Officers for County Charity

Two Birmingham area residents were elected officers of the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children at its recent annual meeting.

Edwin P. Kibbert, 4096 Chestnut, Troy Township, and Mrs. Fred H. Rollins, Jr., 974 Shirley, were elected 1st and 2nd vice-presidents. The other officers, all from Pontiac, were R. C. Poole, president; Mrs. E. Verne McCall, recording secretary, and William Whitfield, treasurer.

Other area residents serving on the board of directors include Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Blakeslee, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew S. Cammareri, Dr. and Mrs. John Wakevaline, Mrs. Edwin P. Kibbert, Oscar Peterson, Mrs. James M. Joyce, Mrs. Edward Kirby, Jr., Mrs. Madeleine Doeren and Mrs. Steele Sellers.

As part of the presentations program, Cammareri, retiring Eastern Seals chairman for Oakland county and representative from the Birmingham Rotary club, presented a $831 check to the society. The society reported a total of over $107,000 received in Eastern Seals contributions from 1956 through 1958. Birmingham's part of this total was approximately $23,000.

B'ham Veterans To Hold Forum

Commander Hugh McGuckin of Charles Edwards Post 14, The American Legion, states that plans have been completed to hold a rally of all veterans in the Birmingham and South Oakland County vicinity at the Birmingham Community House at 8 p.m., Sept. 30.

Governor Williams has been invited to attend and share in a program highlighted by the presence of John M. Carey, department of Michigan commander and other high officers in the state organization.

Fred Galloway of Royal Oak will serve as master of ceremonies. According to Mr. Galloway, the meeting will be devoted to emphasizing the great need for veterans to not only acquaint themselves with the issues involving their rights and status as veterans, but to point out how they may have a greater voice in the shaping and passing of legislation affecting them.
