Kentucky Derby Day

Bales of hay, rustic fence, horseshoes, lanterns and a horse in a corral, set the theme for Kentucky Derby Day at Forest Lake Country club. Gladys Cummings, who came as a canibal, was among those who "dressed" for the golfing event.

The Clarence F. Kramers of Bradley boulevard, have just returned from a three week vacation in Europe where they toured Switzerland and Italy and visited Paris and London.

Thrilling them in Switzerland was a ride up the Matterhorn by cog railway with breathtaking views of the mountains and deep canyons. They had lunch in a small chalet stop the Matterhorn which was shrouded in clouds that graciously lifted several times to give the viewers an added thrill.

Impressed by the art treasures of the museums in Florence and of the beauty of Saint Peter's in Rome, highlight of the trip came at the summer residence of the Pope, Castle Gandolfo, when about 150 children, dressed alike, sang for His Holiness who appeared on his balcony at dusk to bless those who had gathered there.

Fourteen year old Paul Wilson and his dog, Buddy, won third place in the Detroit Times Gun Dog Trial Teen Age Stake at Multi-Lakes Conservation club Saturday.

Buddy is a German short haired pointer and Paul has a large copper plaque to remind him of their ensemble.

The Clarkburg Country club, the newlyweds left for the west coast. To start her travel, the bride changed to a brown silk shantung ensemble.

Newlyweds Honeymoon Out West

First Methodist church was the scene for the September marriage of Mary Beth Young and Alfred John Brennen, Jr. The Rev. Lacy Burns performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 500 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Huffman Young of Clarkburg, W. Va., and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brennen of Yorkshire road, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE walked down the aisle with a white satin gown with a dome shape silhouette ending in a sweeping cathedral train featuring an empire bodice and a circlet neckline with seed pearls. A Juliet cap secured her waist length veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Susan Brennen, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara Rownd, Sharon Campbell, Charlotte Campbell, Rebecca McCue and Mrs. Fred Haefflin.

ATTENDANTS preceded the bride wearing white tulle gowns over sheaths of white tulle which fell loosely in graceful folds from the empire bodice. They carried cascade arrangements of grapes, natural wheat and orchids.

Demonstrations Booth stood as best man and ushers were John Hubbard, Lance Minor, David Beatty, John Sutphen and Thomas Young, brother of the bride.

Mother of the bride chose a champagne peau de soie dress with a small velvet hat in shades of brown and white orchid. Mrs. Brennen selected an embroidered blue silk-faille dress with matching accessories. She carried a corsage of stephanotis and white roses on her purse.

FOLLOWING A reception at (Barbara Bertling) and son, Chip, are here for a visit from their home in Milburn, New Jersey. Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Bertling Jr. and daughter, Fetter, are in from Ann Arbor before Bertling resumes his studies as a senior in the School of Dentistry.

Mrs. Bertling Sr. will leave next week for Washington, D. C. with her daughter, Jane who is entering Mount Vernon Junior college.

Gary Rosenberger, son of the M. S. Rosenbergs of Bradley boulevard spent his vacation at Brant Beach, N. J., as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gray and daughter, Judy, of Birmingham. He is returning to General Motors Institute of Technology this fall.

The D. Pierson Smiths, David, Susan, Peter and Perry spent the month of August at Pte. Aux Barques.

Ruth Ann Huffman of Franklin and Linda Corkery of Birmingham were introduced to Mary Turner of Oahu, Hawaii, houseguest at the Robert Lovell home on N. Clifton, at a luncheon last Thursday given by the Lovells' daughter, Susan.

Mary is returning to Centenary College for Women this fall and Ruth Ann and Linda will be freshmen there.
