Troyton Manor Residents Attend First Fall Meet

The Troyton Manor homeowner's Association held its first fall meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. Charles Hooker, 1095 Brooklawn road.

Discussing problems concerning the association such as speed limit signs were Mrs. George Franden, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Leo Clougherty, Rutherford Hayes, Charles Penning, George Whitehead and Robert Diabler.

Of prime importance to the group was a report given by Mrs. Schulte, social chairman, concerning the coming fall informal dance. It is to be held Oct. 24 at the Maplewood club in Royal Oak. Couples will dance to the music of Max Weir and his orchestra. A late buffet supper will end the evening.

Mrs. Myron Fisher, 1535 Witherbee road and children Debbie, Jeanne and Steve returned before the start of school after a few weeks in the east.

They first journeyed to Winthrop, Mass., to be the houseguests of Fisher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Fisher. While there, they spent a weekend in Newport, R. I. and enjoyed seeing the Vanderbilt mansions.

Washington, D. C. was their next stop to visit Mrs. Fisher's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jason Lewis.

Last stop before the trip ended was to Long Island, N. Y. to spend some time with Mrs. Fisher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Schenber.

Mr. Fisher met the family there to drive them back to Detroit. A month's trip can be quite exciting, and Judy and Janet Patterson found out this summer while traveling with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Patterson, 1904 Pembroke road.

They first journeyed to the Pocono mountains with Mrs. Patterson's mother, Mrs. Rachel Ranner of Florida to visit relatives. While there, an uncle who races horses took the girls to one of the races in which his horse won.

They then visited New York city where the highlight of the trip was seeing the Nautilus arrive in the harbor. The United Nations buildings old and Earle, 10 years old, returned recently from an educational tour.

Their first stop was Gettysburg, Pa., next Washington, D. C. where they visited the Smithsonian Institute and sat in on the sessions of Congress and on to Mt. Vernon, Williamsburg, Jamestown and back home.

Nine year old Christine Sparks was the hostess at a recent luncheon. Along with her mother, Christine entertained five of her schoolmates. The occasion was her birthday.

Guests included Susan Groschow, Susan Kilbury, Ann Hartauf, Wendy Mann and her cousin Linda. Christine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sparks of 1651 Witherbee.

Mrs. Ray Howard, 808 Norwich entertained her neighborhood bridge club last night.

Seated at the two tables were Mrs. Orellia Helms, Mrs. Maurice Baumann, Mrs. George McCutcheon, Mrs. Wright Coulson, Maurice Baumann, Robert Swanson and Mrs. Robert Nant.

Just returned from ten days at Greenbrier in White Silver Springs, W. Va., are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Witherbee. Witherbee road. It was a combined business and pleasure trip. While there, Dennis attended the A. S. C. convention.

Along with the Dennis' were Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Boyd, Mr. Maurice Witherbee and Dr. and Mrs. Norman McCormick.

One of the highlights of the vacation was a trip on top of the famous Kates mountain.

Mrs. Charles Penning, 1611 Witherbee road, held her monthly dessert bridge club in her home Wednesday evening.

Comprising the two tables were Mrs. Maurice Irvin, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. Vernon Dossing, Mrs. Frank Bodinet, Mrs. George Bonner and Mrs. Harold Day.

Just returned from two weeks vacation at a cottage on Higgins road, near the home of Donald Nant, 925 Norwich road and children Lynn, Jack, Karen and twins Pat and Mary.

During their stay, they entertained for one weekend Mr. and Mrs. George Giles and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cutting.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Neuhard, 1539 Witherbee are the proud grandparents of a baby girl named Michelle Margaret born Sept. 9, 1968 at St. Joseph Mercy hospital and weighing 6 lbs. 14 oz.

Michelle's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Bridge, Jr., of Pittsburgh, Pa. Mrs. Bridge has been staying with her parents the past three months while her husband completes his enlistment in the service. They will return to their home the end of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Welley, 2404 Pembroke and daughter Lynn, 1616

The afternoon and evening all-music group of the North Woodville Kappa Kappa Gammas will hold a joint meeting Tuesday in the home of Mrs. C. Dana Rose, 2550 Dundee, Huntington Woods. Plans will be discussed for their annual benefit ball to be in the spring.

Mrs. W. H. Worrester will also give her convention report. Hostesses will be Mrs. Carl Waldrep, Mrs. A. A. Marx, Jr., Mrs. Adrian Vonderhaar, Mrs. T. C. King, Mrs. R. H. Klose and Mrs. Frank Melania. Any Kappa Kappa Gamma will be welcome to attend.

Oakland Symphony Membership Drive Gets Underway

Clark Eastham, president of the South Oakland Symphony society, recently announced a membership drive under the direction of Mrs. Bernard Lieberman, Assisting Mrs. Lieberman in this area is Mrs. John Raymond of Bloomfield Hills. A workers' tea will be at the home of Mrs. William Hohmeyer of Birmingham. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Palmer Sutton. Plans are also underway for the annual talent contest, the winner of which will appear as soloist with the symphony.

Back from Idaho

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Sheldon of Ann street, Birmingham, with their son, John, motored to Idaho Falls to visit their son, Dick, who pitches with the Tiger minor league. John received his masters degree in aeronautical engineering in June and had just finished summer school in time to go with his parents.
