ting their shovels ready for groundbreaking ceremonies. And feeling now is that the site should be closer to Walnut lake school.

Contacted this week by The Birmingham Ecenric, Women's club President Mrs. Henry Hall said the 70 club members are as enthusiastic as ever about the project and would work hard to make the dream a reality. Former president Mrs. John Smith said, "The uses to which such a building could be put, were too numerous to mention."

MEMBERS of the Bloomfield 4-H club held their meetings at the West Bloomfield township hall. But they find that there can be no deviation of their regular meeting date, because of the hall's crowded schedule. Unscheduled meetings must be held in members' homes.

"A community building is one of those things most desperately needed in the community," says Mrs. M. B. Norland, general leader of the 4-H group.

Subdivision associations, of which there are many, hold meetings in the township hall. Members crowd into a small space, sometimes with intermittent police call interruptions.

ON A MORE social angle—Lone Pine Beach association is noted for its wonderful summer parties. But with the advent of winter, such parties must end. There's no place to hold them.

Looking for ways to remedy such situations, Walnut lake group, seeking a community house, made some discoveries. Part of the expenses of such a community building, they have learned, can be defrayed by rentals to groups or individuals who would welcome a large hall with a friendly atmosphere in which to entertain.

And they feel that contributions might be raised from parents, by whom their children could enjoy leisure time in wholesome surroundings.

How it could be financed is uncertain. But it's certain that Wal-

Queen of Martyrs PTA Slates Meeting

The first meeting of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs PTA will be held Sept. 25 in the social hall according to Vincent Meagher, president. Sisters and teachers will be introduced and a short business meeting will be held. Father Robert will be the speaker for the evening. A social hour will follow. Open house will be held from 7 to 9 p. m.

Lakers need and want a place to meet. Claude Whitmer, longtime resident and businessman, summed up the situation when he said, "I think a community house would be a wonderful thing to have, but the project needs immediate action. The longer we wait, the more difficult it will be to find a site."
