Northminster Cooperative Nursery's First Meeting

The Northminster cooperative nursery held their first meeting of the season for mothers on Wed. evening.

Mrs. William McCravy, 2758 Derby road, chairman, presided over the meeting by explaining the function of the school, its policies and procedures with the children. She then introduced the board and each explained their function and duties. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Thomson, teachers, were on hand to meet the new mothers.

Seven enjoying refreshments after the meeting from the Troyton manor area were Mrs. Robert Distler, Mrs. Frank Barnes, Mrs. Ruth, Mrs. Richard Monley, Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Robert Kaufman, Mrs. William Hammond and Mrs. Stanley Trevillian.

An exciting day was Sept. 6 when Robbie Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker, 901 Brooklawn road, was guest of honor for his third birthday party.

Enjoying the ice cream and cake and especially viewing the cartoon movies were Robbie Mansfield, Douglas Ross, Debbie Distler, Cathy Kintworth and younger brother Johnny. Satellite favors were favorites with all the children.

A few days after his party, Robbie traveled to his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barker in Mansfield, Ohio, with his parents to celebrate his grandfather's birthday.

Entertaining her monthly club for a dessert bridge Monday evening was Mrs. Howard Ross, 1554 Witherbee road.

maternal grandfather, Felix Kozlowski.

Robbie Distler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Distler, 881 Brooklawn road, was a very excited little boy recently when he celebrated his first birthday with a few of his playmates.

Guests enjoying his blue birthday cake were Scott and Todd Priesner, Robbie and Johnny Barker, and Michele and Jackie Ward.

In the evening, the Distlers invited the children's parents in for birthday cake and ice cream.

Residents on Pembroke road will miss Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams and family who are moving to Westbury, Conn. The Williams have been long-time residents of Birmingham. They are the parents of three girls, Winifred, Audrey and Elizabeth who have attended Pembroke elementary school.

Williams has accepted a position with the Walters Motor Truck Co. as chief design engineer.

Last week neighbors got together for cocktails and dinner at Devon on Gables honoring the couple.

Attending the evening's festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kojal, Mr. and Mrs. John Harger, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tabor, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lashley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kritz, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Higbee, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Griffith and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Phelan.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Southamer, 2509 Pembroke Road and daughter Julie had as their houseguests Julius maternal grandfather, Mr. Sherman E. Shuproughs from Upper Montclair, N. J.
