C. Allen Harlans Return After Vacation in Europe

The C. Allen Harlans are back home on North Adams road after 10 glorious and exciting weeks touring Europe.

The boarded the "america" liner with their children, Joyce and Jim, and their children's friends, Philmore and David Drummond of Bloomfield Hills, the end of June. After they arrived in Germany they began their travels in a Volkswagen bus which they found most comfortable and economical.

It didn't take them long to learn the driving habits of the Europeans, where the man on the right always has the right of way. The bus became so much a part of the family that they decided to buy it at the end of their travels and bring it home for football games.

While in Berlin they visited Mrs. Holm Semback for a week and when they left added Mrs. Semback's son, Holm, to their little traveling group for the next few weeks.

They were impressed with Italy and spent many hours motoring along the east coast viewing the little fishing villages and the scenic countryside. They stopped for picnic lunches at the edge of the road as is the custom throughout the continent.

They spent interesting days in Florence, Naples and Rome and before leaving the country stayed at some of the old castles that were once palaces at Lake Como near Cenobio.

In France they made stops at old picturesque hotels and inns along the back roads. The children will long remember the French inn where many to their dismay they were served pigeon for dinner. The trip through the chateau country was one of the many highlights.

Interlocken, Switzerland, was another magnificent sight that will long be remembered. A few days were spent among the impressive architectural buildings at the Brussels World's Fair, London, England was another stop and while touring the country they spent a few days in Wales, visiting relatives.

GAIL BURTON

Troth Reveals August Plans

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Joseph Burton, 4545 Pickering road, Franklin Village, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gail Hendley, to Maurice George Marr at a dinner party at their home on Sunday. He is the son of Mrs. Charles L. Buysens of Saginaw and Samuel G. Marr, also of Saginaw.

He is presently attending the University of Michigan, where he is affiliated with Phi Kappa Tau. An August wedding is planned.

A daughter, Laura Jean, was born on Aug. 8 to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Kendall of Kirkcaldy road. There are four other Kendall children, Don, 14, Jay, 12, Bruce, 7, Cathy, 2.

New residents but not newcomers to Dover court are the Andrew Meiers of Dryden Plains. They formerly lived on Dover court, which is now the Terry residence. They have a married son, James, and four grandchildren.

Meier is co-partner in Pontiac Mills in Pontiac and is a specialist when it comes to gladiolus. Meiers raises his gladiolus from seedlings and has been working with the flower for many years.

He has won many awards and medals through the years for his prize gladiolus and many have been new to the flower world in color and design. In August he was awarded a medal at the American Home Achievement Show for his gladiolus. He now has to give his latest prize a name.

A series of coffees are taking place this week at homes of Harlan school parents, introducing the teachers and parents.
