SOCIETY

Recital of Music Set for Tuesday

A recital of music for double bass, violin, piano and harpichord will be presented at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. John Mathews, double bass, has been a member of the Dallas, Houston and Baltimore Symphony orchestras.

Shirley Mathews, pianist, harpichordist and teacher, has appeared as harpichordist with the Detroit Friends of Music Chamber orchestra and on the Cranbrook Garden Concerts series.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathews of Birmingham, will be joined by David Cowen, young New York violinist. David began his violin study at an early age with his father. He has made repeat appearances both in recital for the Cranbrook Music Guild and as soloist with the Chattanooga and Detroit Symphony orchestras.

Detroit Symphony Women's Association Elect New Board

The new board of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony orchestra includes: Madeline Thomas T. Buttrick, William Riddon and Cornelius Hay III, vice president; Stanley Day, recording secretary; John Chapin, corresponding secretary; and Keith McKenney, treasurer. Mrs. D. C. Broderick III, is president.

Standing committee chairmen will be: Madeline Donald Brown, projects; Charles Himmelhoch, yearbook; George Renaud, historian; Maurice Sparr, social; and Wilford Wicklund, telephone.

The association will have a fall fashion tea Oct. 1, at the Lochmoor club, a theatre party in November and one in January, a Symphony Ball Jan. 24, and Bermuda bridge parties in April.

The deadline for society news is noon Tuesday.

Newlywed Underhills Honeymoon in Jamaica

Church of the Holy Spirit in Lake Forest, Ill., was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Lynn Pentress and Carl Anthony Underhill, Jr. The Rev. George Tittman performed the single ring ceremony in the presence of 600 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mrs. Paine Pentress of New York and Mr. Paul Pentress of Palm Beach, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Underhill of Cranbrook road, Bloomfield Hills.

THE BRIDE wore a dress of ivory peau de soie forming a portrait neckline and a panner ending in a bustle. A seed pearl tiara secured her princess lace veil which cascaded into a cathedral length train. She carried butterfly orchids and lilies of the valley.

Eleanor O'Connor was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Evelyn Bardeen, Evelyn Lisle, Emily King, Mary Pentress, Barbara Underhill and Jane Underhill.

Newlyweds Make Home In Ohio

Emanuel Episcopal church, La Grange, Ill., was the setting for the marriage of Suzanne Kathryn Thayer to Maynard Brewster Terry, Jr. The bride, daughter of Mrs. Pratt Thayer, was escorted to the altar by her uncle, George Pratt.

Her attendants were Susan Arnold of Glenview, Ill., and Carolyn Thomas of Grasse Pointe. Lynn Terry, the bridegroom's sister, was flower girl and Jill Terry, another sister, a junior bridesmaid.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard B. Terry of 610 Half Moon road, Bloomfield Village had his brother Robert serve as best man. Ushers were Bertram Hutchings and Jack Graham of Birmingham and Robert Thayer, brother of the bride.

Upon returning from a wedding trip in northern Michigan, the newlyweds will reside in Cincinnati, Ohio, where the bridegroom is employed by the Socony-Mobil Oil company.
