

Plasketts Honeymoon In Northern Michigan

Margaret Elizabeth Johnson wore a white gown of embroidered organza for her marriage to Robert William Plasket Saturday afternoon in the First Methodist church in Birmingham.

The Rev. Allen Witzup performed the single ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Dwight Blinn of George street, Birmingham; and the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Plasket of Jackson, Mich.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN featured a fitted bodice, rounded neckline and short sleeves with embroidered accents. A Juliet cap of organza and seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. A bouquet of white daisies, stephanotis and ivy completed the bridal picture.

Nancy Ruth Johnson was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Patricia Hughes, Patricia Small and flower girl was Victoria Gallagher.

ATTENDANTS were gowned in blue organza with bouffant skirts and fitted bodices with rounded necklines. They carried bouquets of white daisies, blue dolphin and ivy. The flower girl wore a white organza floor length dress with rounded neckline and blue sash.

Walter L. Plasket stood as best man. Ushers were William Fay, Carl Johnson, Richard Busch and Nicolai Todoroff.

MRS. ROBERT PLASKETT

MOTHER of the bride chose a blue chiffon dress with matching hat and a rose corsage. Mrs. Plasket selected a dusty rose lace sheath with matching hat and pink carnations.

The newlyweds are honeymooning in Northern Michigan.

LEA MAE MARSH

Troth Reveals Winter Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Marsh of Biewood drive, Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Lea Mae, to Thomas D. Shea, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Shea of Huntington Woods.

The bride-elect attended Michigan State university. Her fiancé was graduated from the University of Notre Dame following which he obtained his M.A. degree from the University of Michigan.

A winter wedding is being planned.

North Adams

Robert Wallaces Vacation In Michigan North Country

Many of the North Adams residents are returning home from their vacations and are getting ready to swing into the fall season. The Robert Wallaces of Tullamore drive enjoyed a few days at Boyne Mt. lodge in northern Michigan during their vacation. Accompanying them was their son, Jeff. Touring Traverse City and spending a night on Mackinac Island were among the trips highlights.

The Wallaces' son, Peter, spent two weeks at the same time at Ohaynes YMCA camp at Holly.

The Frederick Olivers and children Julie and Ron, of Hickory Heights drive and the L. H. Hoffstetters and children Marsha and Larry, of Pine Hill drive have been spending the last two weeks at Crystal lake in northern Michigan. Much of their time was spent golfing and fishing.

Returning from a trip through the east are the Ralph Richardsons and daughters Martha and Sarah, of Weatherly drive. They visited the Harry Tremaine's sister of Mrs. Richardson, in Darien, Conn. Then on to Fair Hills, N. J., where they were houseguests of the H. W. Tallocks, relatives of the Richardsons.

Houseguests at the Barrow road home of the Robert Brodies for a week were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bowers and children Holly and Donald, Jr., of La Canada, Calif. The Brodies and children Sharon, Carol, Tom and Ron, and their guests then left for Broken Rocks near Fort Austin. There they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Elmer McDavid of Detroit.

After their stay the Brodie family went on to Silver lake near Pentwater where they stayed a week at the Paradise Resort. One of the vacation highlights was the thrilling ride on the dune scooters over the sand dunes along Lake Michigan.

Sharon, 16-year-old daughter of the Robert Brodies, found last week's calendar to be one of the busiest. She began by spending Tuesday to Friday with the 4-H club at the Shaw dormitory on the Michigan State campus in Lansing. Sharon is one of the winners of the 4-H club of lower Michigan and represented Michigan County at the Michigan State Fair last Friday. She modeled clothes she had made for an earlier contest in July and won. The ensembles included a brown trench coat and matching skirt. With this she wore a yellow Indianhead dress.

WEBB HECKER, son of the Edwin Heckers of Burnley drive, returned to the Rockin' R Ranch at Custer for an additional two weeks of riding, water skiing, trail rides, canoe rides, archery and roping.

While there Webb's horse took first place in a riding exhibition and was awarded a first prize bronze horse trophy.

The Robert Livesays of Pine Hill drive are home after spending a week visiting Mrs. A. W. Neale.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HARDY

John Hardys Honeymooning In New York

Andree Belle Knight wore a white taffeta and organza gown for her August marriage to John E. Hardy in Our Mother of Consolation church in Chestnut Hill, Pa.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Alwyn W. Knight of Chestnut Hill, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hardy of Bloomfield Hills.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN featured a scooped neckline, short sleeves and skirt was bordered in wide taffeta with bows at side and front. An organza bow caught her fingertip veil of silk illusion and she carried a spray of white and pale pink roses.

Mrs. Charles Hensbun was matron of honor and Carol Ryan was bridesmaid. Matron of honor wore a pale green taffeta with length dress and bridesmaid was gowned in blue organza over taffeta.

ROBERT HARDY, brother of the groom, stood as best man. Ushers were Norman Goddard and Richard Goodnow.

The newlyweds are motoring to New York and upon return will make their home in Bloomfield Hills.

MRS. JAMES SKINNER

Newlyweds To Make Home In Maryland

Franklin Community church was the scene Saturday evening for the marriage of Bonnie Jo Fisher and James J. Skinner. The Rev. Robert Searles performed the 7 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 170 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fisher of Glenway drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Skinner of Forest lane, Birmingham.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a floor length nylon tulle gown featuring a V-shaped scalloped neckline of Italian lace and fitted bodice with lace paneling down the front dipping on the sides and back up to the waistline in the back.

A sequin tulle secured her ballerina length veil of silk illusion. She carried a white Bible covered with white roses.

Mary Ann Cronk was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Patricia Stone and Mary Harris. Attendants were gowned in white lace over powder blue taffeta dresses with matching crowns.

RICHARD WILBER served as best man and ushers were Robert Dudley, Richard Bledie and John Keeler.

Mother of the bride chose a rose lace tulle tulle sheath with matching accessories. Mrs. Skinner selected a blue-grey embroidered silk over taffeta with blue accents.

After a honeymoon to Northern Michigan, the newlyweds will make their home in Valley Lee, Md.
