Bloomfield Village

Judith Dickinson
MA 6132

A graduation party was held Aug. 26 at the Andrew Holb, Jr., home on Covington place for parents and children, who attended a nursery school this summer conducted by two twelve-year-olds.

Judy Holb and Jeanne Williams, daughter of the Wendell E. Williams, also of Covington place taught 15 neighborhood children songs, dances and games, and served them refreshments. Their accomplishments were displayed to their parents Tuesday evening, the children being dressed in white graduation gowns made by the girls.

Cake, coffee and soft drinks were served to Ann and John Booth, Nancy Poole, Dicky Eady, Stevie and Shelley Leasia, Jill, Judy and Tim Lindow of Covington place, Kristie Lape, Brad Ewing, Candy Demoreest and Tommy Glen of Broadway boulevard and Ann Wakeman and Connie Watkins of Birmingham and their parents.

Kristie Lape was presented an award for perfect attendance. Stevie and Shelley Leasia missed just once and were given an award. The others were given small remembrances.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Van Fleet and 16-year-old Karen of N. Cranbrook road have just returned from a two-month European vacation.

Landing at Le Havre, they visited the Normandy peninsula, Mont-Saint-Michel and Paris, and through the French and Italian Riviera where Van Fleet enjoyed a meal of squid, octopus and French-fried minnows, thinking he was orders and French perfume. They drove across Austria and Switzerland, traveled through Germany and Holland visiting the small principality of Liechtenstein and the Brussels World's Fair. In England they visited London and toured the Shakespeare country.

Mrs. A. Bruce Knight of Hamilton road and Mrs. Kenneth B. Trussell of Athens, Ga., enjoyed a pleasant stay this past month at Wentworth-by-the-Sea in Portsmouth, N. H. Enroute home they were guests of another friend in Chatham, Mass. The 250-year-old house in which they were staying and the friends they met in this quaint Cape Cod community make for many happy memories.

Spending a couple of weeks in the Hartz Mountains in Germany at a youth hostel in Martin Weirich, son of the A. J. Weirich of Vorn lane. An exchange student with the spent several days in Bremen, Germany at the home of Ludwig Koch, a young German boy, and while there was entertained by the Bremen government at a reception, and by the United States Consul General at a dance.

He is on his way to Dusseldorf, Germany where he will live with Dr. and Mrs. Johann Reichelt and attend school with their sons, Till mann, 17, and Wolfgang, 16, this fall. Their daughter, Hanna, was an exchange student last year and attended high school in Rochester, N. Y.

Teachers Judy and Jeanne do honors at a party for their young graduates.
