Orchard Lake Sailors Meet

Mrs. Benjamin Brewster was hostess recently for a tea and meeting of committee members of the women sailors of Orchard Lake country club.

Plans were made for the forthcoming sailing season and May 22 was established as the day for the annual women sailors luncheon at the club.

Dates for the three sailing series were decided, with Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr., accepting the chairmanship for the first series. Mrs. Berrien C. Kethum is in charge of the second series and Mrs. George D. Miller chairman of the final series.

Mrs. Benjamin Brewster is this year's general chairman, with Mrs. Walter A. Kleinert assisting her. Mrs. Howard B. Green will be in charge of rules. Mrs. John G. Slater will manage finances and Mrs. Eric Sommer will direct crews. Dee Dee Miller has charge of prizes. Mrs. Basil Brown will head entertainment and Mrs. Carson Bingham will handle publicity.

George R. Mosher, Jr. and Mrs. Mark H. Carross.

The Barrett Masons, 1944 Graefield rd., are busy making plans to move to their new home at 1200 Buckingham.

Mason is with the Detroit Steel Corporation, Detroit. He is interested in photography and both he and Mrs. Mason are square dance enthusiasts.

Mrs. Mason is a part time secretary for Begraw and Brown, Architects, and does volunteer work for the Red Cross. She enjoys painting as a hobby.

Shethar Davises Travel East for Christening

A happy little boy recently was Robert Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Wilson, 2685 Pembroke rd., who was guest of honor for his 3rd birthday party March 26.

Enjoying the party's Micky Mouse motif were playmates Euan Hixbie, Shelly Wrather, Margie Castle, Betsy Harger, Judy and Mary Jane Desimpe, Carolyn Smith, Stephen Ludwig. Ten month old brother Mark was fascinated with the activity.

Michael and Harry Castle were a big help to Mrs. Wilson in preparing for the party by blowing up balloons and placing decorations.

The women's auxiliary of the Junior Chamber of Commerce held its monthly meeting this week in the home of Mrs. Robert Wilson, 2226 Derby of Mrs. Royal Wilson was co-hostess for the affair.

Main business topic was the coming money-making banquet discussed by Mrs. Ray Conlon, Mrs. Patrick Deagan, Mrs. Albert Farth, Mrs. Vera Hangerstein, Mrs. James Martin, Mrs. Robert Reardon, Mrs. James Sothermer and Mrs. Robert Wing.

New babies are always a big event in every family but multiple births are something extra special as was experienced by Mr. and Mrs. George (Pete) Abbott, 2153 Pembroke rd., on March 25 when their twin sons were born at St. Joseph Mercy hospital.

The boys, William Michael and David John, weighed in at 6 lbs. 1 oz. and 6 lbs 9 oz. respectively. They were welcomed home by older brother Jim, 8, and sister Patti, 5.

Paternal grandmother, Mrs. George Abbott, Sr., arrived from Lansing to assist Mrs. Abbott. Mrs. Hatti Hollister, maternal grandmother, also paid the family a visit.

Mrs. Thomas Schulte of Withers rd., chairman of the social committee for the Troyton Manor home-owners association, held a meeting of her committee Thursday evening in her home to make final arrangements for the annual SPRING semi-formal dinner dance. The dance will be held at the Sylvan club on Saturday, April 18. Cold hors d'oeuvres will be served at 7:30 p.m. and the buffet to follow at 8:00 p.m. Dancing to Herb Miller's trio will begin at 9:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. Tickets must be purchased by this evening.

The St. Jane de Chantal guild held its monthly meeting Monday evening in St. Ann hall, Holy Name church, for election of new officers.

Mrs. James Carey was voted chairman; Mrs. Robert Odani, co-chairman; Mrs. Thomas Schulte, treasurer; Mrs. Donald Nanny, secretary; Mrs. William Taylor, hospitality and Mrs. Maurice Baumson, social chairman.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Grace Riley, of the Birmingham travel agency. She spoke on her recent trip to Russia, giving views and impressions of the people and country. She found the people very interested in being friendly and enjoyed their elaborate subways and many museums which were former churches.

Brookland rd. and son Jimmie, returned recently from a week's trip to Louisville Ky. where they were house-guests of Mr. Adams, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hale.

Before returning home Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Hale and son Jimmie journeyed to Nashville, Tenn. to visit Mr. and Mrs. William Bayliss and son Bobby, Jimmy's cousin.

Mrs. and Mrs. Shethar Davis and daughter, Susan Barstow, 9 months, 1900 Graefield rd., have returned from a two week visit in Schenectady, N.Y. The Davises were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Barstow, maternal grandparents of Susan.

Susan was christened Easter Sunday at the First Reformed church in Schenectady. Godparents, present were Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ogle of Schenectady. Paternal grandparents, Capt. and Mrs. Louis P. Davis of Washington, D. C. and Pompano Beach, Fla., were unable to be there for the occasion.

After the christening the group gathered at the hotel Van Curler for champagne, dinner and cake to celebrate both the christening and the birthday of Grandfather Barstow.

During the holiday Mrs. John L. Ogle gave a "sheep picnic" in honor of Mrs. Davis. Many old friends from the area took part in the affair.

After returning home Mrs. Davis entertained her neighborhood bridge club Thursday, April 9. Present were Mrs. Richard Baupre, Mrs. James G. Germain, Mrs. Hugh L. Fisher and Mrs. Walter C. Mitchell.

Also enjoying cards were Mrs. Gerald E. McElvan Jr., Mrs.
