Christ Church Scene of Proctor-Runnette Wedding

Alencon lace from her mother's wedding veil formed the mantilla headdress which Mary Chase Proctor wore for her marriage to Creighton Wilson Runnette Saturday at Christ Church Cranbrook.

The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt and the Rev. Jones B. Shannon of Washington, D. C. performed the 6 p.m. ceremony

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Alexander Proctor, of Wing Lake road, Birmingham. Her husband, of Detroit, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander "Toighton" Runnette, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

THE BRIDE'S princess line gown was fashioned of ivory silk tulle, falling into a chapel train. Alencon lace appliqued the necklines.

She carried white roses and ivy. Her attendant carried garnet roses and ivy, and wore ivory head-dresses. Their waltz length, non-silk gowns were of organza over silk tulle.

Cynthia Chisholm of Laurel, Miss., was maid of honor, while Mrs. Charles C. Alexander of Cambridge, Mass. was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Clara Walsh, Jr., Sally Beardshaw, of Grasse Pointe, Ellen Eagle, of Durham, N. C., Mary B. Foxwell, of New York, Mrs. Richard F. Flood, Jr., of Bonfret, Conn. and Elizabeth Partridge, of Hingham, Mass.

MARY KERR and Edgar Weil were junior attendants. The groom's uncle, Gray Merrill of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was best man.

Seating the guests were the groom's brother, Robert G. Runnette, a cousin, John K. Runnette, William Brownlee, Dwight D. Foster, Jr., Hudson G. Samson, Jr., Victor O. Friday, Jr., all of Pitt-

A reception and dinner at Orchard Lake country club, followed the ceremony. The couple will make their home in Royal Oak when they return from a Bermuda wedding trip.

Jr. Goodwill Spring Mart

A big red circle highlights April 21 on the calendars of the members of the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries who will hold their Spring Mart at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on that date.

Mrs. John Benfield, chairman, has assigned workers to 12 booths, featuring many categories of merchandise.

The Needle and Stitch Bazaar provides summer sportswear, Ka-chin coats, Jamaican pull-over blouses, aprons, litter bags and the like—all made by Mesdames Fred Menz, H. Lloyd Bishop, Paul Richmond and their assistants.

The Parisian booth will carry bonjour accessories fashioned by Mrs. Andrew Carnegie and Mrs. Donald J. Sheet.

The Cradle and Small Fry booth caters to the very young. Mesdames George T. Wilde, Robert Campbell, James T. Barnard, Robert Green, Edward Warnica, George Trumbull, John Muckle and Eric Harst have made toys and children's accessories to supply the counter.

The Gourmet Cafe, under the management of Mrs. Herbert Metcalf and her committee, of which Mrs. Harry J. Altick is a member, will welcome shoppers for luncheon between the hours of 12 and 2:30 p.m.

Among other booths will be a Brads, Bangles and Bracelets booth, Hand Knit Shop, Beach booth, Attie Treasures booth, Bonnet and Hat Boutique, Surprise Package counter and Country Kitchen.

Proceeds of the Mart will go to the group's general fund which provides furnishings and equipment for the Goodwill plant.
