G. A. Florez Family Returns From Vacation in Phoenix

Just returned from three weeks spent in the sunshine of Phoenix are Mr and Mrs. G. A. Florez and son, John, of Tottingham road. Daughter, Jean, spent her vacation from U of M with them visiting Mrs. Florez' mother, Mrs. Milton G. Wood.

Many Birmingham area residents were vacationing nearby. Attending a party at the Racquet Club given by the Florezes were Mrs. E. Wright Young, Mrs. John Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Merton J. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hugh Whitelaw, Mr. and Mrs. George Tischer and Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Muzzey.

Staying at the San Marcus in Chandler, Ariz., with the Tischeres were Wadlington road neighbors, the C. Hugh Whitelaws. They had visited Mrs. Whitelaw's mother, Mrs. H. T. Abernathy in Kansas City, on their way out. They also spent several days in Denver visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Downing and four children.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dystra are back in their N. Glenavary road home after a lengthy stay in Ft. Lauderdale this winter.

Mrs. John N. Fauser of Morningview Terrace has returned from Ft. Lauderdale, also. She enjoyed visits from Mrs. Rudolph Morris of Los Angeles, who stayed with her for a month, from the Carl Abbotts of the Village and from granddaughter, Pat Henry, who spent her vacation from U of M with Mrs. Fauser.

Spending a week at the Galt Ocean Mile hotel at Ft. Lauderdale-by-the-Sea were Mr. and Mrs. George Broome and daughters, Deborah and Alison of Westwood road.

They also spent a day in Nassau. The girls were especially thrilled with the carriage ride around the island.

Warne Todd is stationed in Sacramento, Calif., having finished his Village Cub scouts spring fever was heightened by the movie "Tigers in Spring Training." Bill Corrigan, president of the national league of the Little Leagues was there to explain Little League practice. Advising the boys on purchasing sports equipment was Vince Secontine.
