Westchester Women Plan April 30 Bridge Luncheon

WESTCHESTER—A bridge luncheon will be given at noon April 30 by the Westchester Women's association at Forest Lake country club. Guests are welcome. For reservations contact Mrs. Edward Schlee, 2632 Heathfield, no later than April 24.

While discussing plans for the luncheon, Mrs. Schlee was hostess for the board meeting in her home on Heathfield road. Present were the newly elected board members:

- Mrs. Tommy Shannon, Mrs. Jay Cumba, Mrs. Robert Bozardus, Mrs. Robert Weir, Mrs. John Garner, Mrs. J. J. Sharpe, Mrs. S. Garber, Mrs. Jack Seeley, Mrs. John Schuster and Mrs. George Bryant.

Women interested in taking instructions in drawing and painting are welcome to join the Westchester Women's art group. For information regarding time and meeting places contact Mrs. Sul Garber, 333 Westbourne court.

Mrs. Raymond Reid of Farmingdale road is the newly elected president of the Birmingham Community House Newcomers club. She was also elected to the board on the program.

The choir will present the Bach Contata April 17 with a full symphony accompaniment. This presentation sponsored by the Northwest Emmanuel Evangelical Lutheran church will be at the Rackham building.

Sixteen brand new tents were occupied by 29 proud boy scouts, all members of Walnut Lake troop 11, when the boys went on a campout at Highland Recreation area this past weekend.

The tents were purchased with the funds from the Christmas wreath sale. Accompanying the boys was scoutmaster, Charles Zeiger.

Thirty-one classmates and friends of Mary Beth Burkhardt gathered recently at the Eckhard C. Burkhardt home on Meadow Lane road to enjoy a circus party celebrating Mary Beth's eighth birthday.

Six-year-old Spike Burkhardt played his role as the clown's helper to the hilt as he entertained the little girls.

Riding In Style

A girl was right in style 75 years ago if she had a carriage like the one three-month-old Monnie McGraw MacGregor goes strolling in. Admiring Monnie are Mrs. H. E. Twietmeyer and two-year-old Heidi, both in some of the "Fashions through the Ages" to be modeled in the Foxcroft branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden association show Friday at 8 p.m. at Bloomfield Hills junior high school. Children and husbands will join the antique fashion parade, which will include skirted masculine bathing suits. Most costumes to be modeled at the family event belong to Foxcroft families. Others are from Dearborn historical museum. Mrs. James H. Bennett is chairman of the event to benefit scholarship funds for horticultural students.
