Mr. and Mrs. Hubert II Honeymooning in Miami

Cherry Hill United Presbyterian church, Dearborn, was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Patricia Ann Ashbaugh and John Bradford Hubert II.

The Rev. Frank J. Irvine, D.D., performed the 1 o'clock ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Ashbaugh of Dearborn and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest B. Hubert of Pine Tree trail, Bloomfield Hills.

THE BRIDE APPEARED in a ballerina length gown of pure silk shantung with a fitted bodice forming a long V in the back, flat panel in front, gathered at hips to form full skirt, scalloped sabrina neckline accented with lace and trimmed with sequins and seed pearls. A cap of sequins and seed pearls secured her shoulder length veil of imported silk illusion. Her bouquet consisted of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Charles Schirmer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaid was Christine Hubert, sister of the groom.

THEY WORE identical, Dresden blue all-lace sheath dresses with matching overskirt of silk-organza forming an empire waistline with a blouson back and headbands of blue velvet. Their bouquets were of rubrum lilies and ruby-colored mums.

Peter Hubert served as best man for his brother. Ushers were James E. Conlin and Joel Farrell. Mother of the bride wore a blue costume suit of sheer wool and Mr. Hubert chose a navy blue sheath dress of pure silk shantung. Both mothers had orchids.

The newlyweds are driving to Miami for a two-week honeymoon.

B'ham MOMS Assist Children's Home

Birmingham MOMS (Mothers of Men in Service), always at work to provide special treats as well as many small necessities for the underprivileged youngsters of the Oakland county Children's Home, went all out to assist the Easter bunny this year.

Among contributions which the MOMS made to pre-Easter and Easter morning fun at the Home were 90 decorated nut cups filled with jelly beans which were contributed by Mrs. B. L. Pettypiece, Easter baskets and 15 dozen eggs with egg dye and transfers.

To assist in raising funds for their projects, MOMS will hold a luncheon and card party to which the public is invited on April 8 at 12:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Howard R. Estes, 492 Rivenock, Birmingham.

Christ Child Society Plans Gay 90's Fete

The annual dinner dance sponsored by the Birmingham unit of the Christ Child Society will begin at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 4, 1959—but the costumes and the decor for the party will be that of the "gay 90's." Chairman for the event, Mrs. Thomas J. Alison, and her co-chairman, Mrs. Joseph Juett, are carrying the Victorian theme into every phase of the party.

As guests arrive at Oakland Hills country club, they will be greeted by a transformation as Timothy Cranes, Harold Mountain and George M. Dace.

Women of the committee for the dance will wear costumes loaned by the Detroit Historical Museum. Included are Mesdames Edmund T. Nolard, J. G. Shannon, Frank Gagner, Jr., Lawrence Hendrickson, Richard T. Gorye, James D. Schmidt, William Barton, William Galardy, and John Steiner. Decorating chairmen are Mrs. James Kemp and Mrs. Robert Pillarait.

St. Dunstan's In Rehearsal For New Play

A jinx that haunts Broadway productions need not affect local theater activities. At least that's the prevailing opinion at St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook, where "The Potting Shed" is now in rehearsal for performances on Friday and Saturday, April 10-11 and 17-18.

"When the leading man attempts to direct the show, too, it's not always a successful combination on Broadway," explains Jervis B. McMechan who is directing "The Potting Shed" as well as playing the male lead. "But we don't think that jinx will apply to us because three other directors, Mrs. Robert H. Porter, James Mauders and Mrs. Francis T. Loud are working closely on this production."

This will be the first local production of the mystery play by Graham Greene which had a successful New York run two seasons ago.

Working on the technical staff of the production are Robert Snyder set designer; Jerome Neumann, set construction; Mrs. Frederick C. Guest, executive producer; Mrs. Nelson B. Nolard, properties; Mrs. George Shepherd, lines; Mrs. Richard Steading, costumes; William Holmes, lights and sound effects; and Mrs. Robert Field tickets.
