SOCIETY

Presbyterian Church Scene of Ceremony

Wednesday at the First Presbyterian church was the scene of a candlelight ceremony performed by Dr. W. Glen Harris, uniting in marriage Gertrude Ann McKewen and Douglas H. Green.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Fred R. McKewen of Birmingham and the late Mr. McKewen. Her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Howard B. Green, also of Birmingham.

MRS. DOUGLAS GREEN

THE BRIDE, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Neil Ely, wore an ivory satin gown with a yoke of lace and net, fitted bodice and cathedral train. A lace cap secured her tiered fingertip veil. She carried white gardenias and stephanotis.

Her sister, Judy, acted as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Appleford, Sally Kline-stecker, Carol Green and Patricia Heflin.

They were gowned in deep pink taffeta dresses and wore matching caps with small pearl trimmed veils. Their bouquets consisted of deep rose carnations.

HOWARD GREEN acted as his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Mark Putney, Joseph Peterson, David Andreae and James Clatworthy.

The bride's mother wore a blue silk sheath dress with a blue flowered hat and carried white camellias pinned to her purse. The groom's mother selected a beige silk sheath gown with matching flower hat and a green orchid corsage.

B'ham PTA Council Sponsors Classes
