Mrs. James J. Nance Opens House to WNFGA

Mrs. James J. Nance will open her home on Lone Pine road to the Michigan Division of the WNFGA for their annual International Tea April 16 from 2 until 5 p.m.

When relating plans Mrs. Garrison said, "This tea is for the benefit of the International Farm Youth Exchange program which is administered and sponsored by the 4-H clubs of America and supported wholeheartedly by the Garden clubs."

Among the guests who have accepted Mrs. Garrison's invitation are Ben Westrate, executive director of Michigan 4-H Foundation; Russell Mauby, state 4-H club leader; and Mary Woodward, assistant state 4-H club leader in charge of International Farm Youth Exchange program.

Included in the final details will be an unusual flower exhibition put on by members of participating Garden clubs throughout the state.

Appointments for the tea tables will be handled by Mrs. George Dixon, 6223 Dakota, of the Bham garden club and Mrs. Walter Fenlon of the Mt. Clemens garden club.

Staying at the new "Yankee Clipper" in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. this past month and enjoying its very Polynesian atmosphere were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walsh of N. Glengarry road. They flew down, then had a company car at their disposal, enabling them to tour the western part of the state and visit friends in Indian Rock Beach, Sarasota, Belleaire and Treasure Isle.

They enjoyed the company of many Birmingham residents while at Ft. Lauderdale and gave a St. Patrick's day party for Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Bryn of Dearborn.

The E. F. Wellerings of Yarmouth road have returned from a month in California and Hawaii. Staying at the Beverly Hills Hotel they visited friends in the Los Angeles area, then spent some time at Laguna Beach and La Jolla, doing some painting, taking in two very fine art exhibits and visiting friends.

They enjoyed Hawaiian hospitality at the Hawaiian Village in Honolulu and at a quaint inn with a roof of palm leaves on the island of Kauai. They also enjoyed a special exhibit at the art museum in Honolulu.

The Howard Hites, Waddington road, and son Don and his wife, spent four very full days in Philadelphia last week. While the men attended a photographic convention, the ladies were entertained with a luncheon and demonstration on flower arranging at which the younger Mrs. Hite won the centerpiece.
