We're grateful to Sgt. Ahlgrim for reminding us of this constant threat to our children, and for his recommendations for helping to prevent its occurring.

It CAN happen here. But we can help to stop it.

Norwich Road Residents Travel to Franklin, N. C.

A trip to Franklin, N. C., was taken recently by Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Hayes of Norwich road and children Scott and Rudy.

While there the family were the houseguests of Hayes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hayes. The children enjoyed exploring a cave on the Hayes property and all partook of the warm climate for spending time outside.

Before returning home the Hayes stopped at a Cherokee Indian town in N. C., where they enjoyed learning their ways of life and meeting the Indians.

The Troyton Manor Home-Owners' association held their annual spring semi-formal dinner dance at the Sylvan Glen Country club Saturday evening.

Making plans weeks in advance were Mrs. Thomas Schulte, chairman, and her committee Mrs. James Sowers, Mrs. Vernon Doering, Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Alfred Kraetz, Mrs. Andrew Seiger and the association's president, Charles Penninger.

The couples started arriving at 7:30 p. m. to enjoy cocktails and hors d'oeuvres before partaking the buffet dinner. Some seen on the dance floor were Mr. and Mrs. Warren McElhenny, Mr. and Mrs. George Roebuck, Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lippard, Mr. and Mrs. William Dym and Mr. and Mrs. William Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Maclart and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Trivillan.

Others seen in the various rooms were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Monley, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reardon, Mr. and Mrs. William Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. "Big" Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miner and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Urquhart.

A very pleased mother and father on April 2 were Mr. and Mrs. William Page, Manchester road, who welcomed their first daughter, Barbara Ann, born at Women's Hospital and weighing in at 7 lbs. 1 oz.

Greeting their new sister were brothers Tom, David and Bruce. Also on hand to see their new granddaughter were the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Anderson and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Page, both of Muskegon, Mich.

A very novel and interesting party planned Tues. evening by Mrs. Tyson of Pembroke school for her young kindergarten pupils and their parents.

The children and their parents arrived in the auditorium carrying their basket dinners and each mother was presented with flower favors made by their off-springs.

After dinner the group enjoyed a session of square dancing with mothers and sons, and fathers with daughters and then the parents listened to songs from the children and joined in themselves on familiar numbers.

A few seen from the area were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte with Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Seiger and Jonathan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Craig and Stevie, Mr. and Mrs. John Riccardo with Terri, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bard and Jeff, Mr. and Mrs. James Bower with Cathy and Mr. and Mrs. John Power and Ted.

Dawn Rovit to Wed Jack E. Miettunen

Mr. and Mrs. John Rovit of Troy announce the engagement of their daughter, Dawn Elizabeth, to Jack E. Miettunen, son of Mrs. Jack E. Miettunen of Birmingham.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Pontiac Business Institute and her fiancé attends Lawrence Institute of Technology.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Charmers For Charity

The Christ Child Society has come up with an inspired means of raising funds for its favorite project, Christ Child House, a temporary shelter for children needing home care. The Society is sponsoring the sale of Serbin shirtwaist dresses for mother and daughter. The "Christ Child's Country Cousin," modeled here by Ann Gildardy, daughter of the W. H. Gildardy's of Hupp Cross road and Mrs. Donald O. Clark of Burnley drive, will be sold in the D. J. Healy shop on West Maple. It will be modeled in the store on Friday, May 1, by Mrs. Stanley Maxon. Mrs. Paul Bergmoser, and Little C. Bessie Byrnes, daughter of the Robert Byrnes, from 11 Ark. through 3 p.m. On Saturday it will be modeled in the shop by Mrs. Clark, her daughter, Cathie, and by Judy Cronin, daughter of the Walter Cronins. Two dollars on each of the adult dresses sold and one dollar on each daughter's dress will go to the Christ Child Society. The dresses will also be shown at the Society's mother and daughter luncheon at Lochmoor country club in May.

Hills Teacher On Camp Staff

Twenty-six Birmingham area girls who will share an adventure at Lost Trail camp in the Bitterroot valley of Montana this summer have learned that Miss Jean Sierlet, physical education director for girls at Bloomfield Hills junior high school, will supervise the camp's activity program.

Miss Sierlet has a broad background of campcraft, was a member of the U. S. touring folk hockey team which played in Europe several years ago, has been in Girl Scout work and taught folk dance and physical education at Edison Institute, Greenfield Village.

Flying out for the second season at Lost Trail will be Connie Green, Julie Bennett, Nancy and Susan Judd, Winn Lyon, Dorothy Withers, Marilyn Flint and Diane King.

The camp is owned and operated by Paul S. Gerhardt, a member of the staff of Brookside school, Craney town.
