Teacher of the Month: Miss Alfreda Purchase

Alfreda Purchase, Birmingham Education Association's Teacher of the Month, has held as her immediate task the maintenance of constant educational accomplishment in the public schools. Her professional integrity, sense of responsibility, and her lovable quality of humor has earned the respect and affection not only of her students, but also of the faculty and the administration. Her loyalty and beliefs encourage and develop good relationships in both the school and the community.

Alfreda, better known as "Furch", was born in Marquette, Mich. She attended Northern State Teachers college at Marquette and received her B.S. degree.

She began her teaching career in Cadillac, Mich. and has taught in Albion, Conn., to Birmingham, she taught first at Barnum and later transferred to Pierce where she is considered a warm and understanding fourth grade teacher.

A variety of interests occupy "Furch's" leisure time. She likes to travel and has visited many of the 50 states as well as Canada and Mexico. One of her hobbies is that of "dirt collector"—the collecting

Bride Wears Gown Of Chantilly Lace

The Baptist church in Richton, Miss., was the setting for the wedding of Velma Loyce McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch E. McGee of Richton; to Donel A. Kalter, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Kalter of Birmingham.

The Rev. W. M. Averett officiated at the double ring ceremony April 11 at 3 o'clock.

THE BRIDE, who was in her marriage by her father, appeared in a waltz length gown of hand-clipped white chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The bodice was fashioned with a square neckline, adorned by a design of pearls and iridescent sequins and long sleeves that formed points over the hands. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a cap of lace embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with a bouquet of feathered carnations and white orchid on top.

Thelma McGee, twin sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Her gown was of pink silk organza over tulle. She carried a cascade of pink carnations.

SERVING THE GROOM as best man was his brother, John F. Kalter, Jr. Ushers were B. H. Walley and Hoyt Foster.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McGee wore an afternoon dress of navy lace with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Mother of the groom wore a dress of purple flowered chiffon over tulle, fashioned with a deep neckline, full skirt and crushed satin cummerbund. An orchid formed her corsage.

The bride changed to a navy suit for traveling.

Crabapple Trees At Library

Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to noon, all of the crabapple trees sold by the Birmingham branch will be ready for pickup at the parking lot of the Baldwin Public Library on Chester.

The proceeds from this annual sale will be used for civic improvement.

Mrs. J. P. Smith reports a complete sell-out of the 300 trees by her committee in this community. Eleven of the trees will be planted as far away as Metamora, Wendover Estates, purchased 50 trees and Adams Village, 22. The other communities are especially eager to beautify their streets and yards.

Releg Wheeler of the Mithale school and Alberta Savonuzzi of the Valley Woods school, winner of the poster contest, will be given trees for their schools at the WNFCA meeting on May 11. Many attractive posters were used during the sale.

Hills Country Club Members Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Bloomfield Hills Country club celebrated its 50th anniversary Saturday evening, at a dinner dance, golden divorcations, including drapes for the ballroom windows, were carried out in floral arrangements.

Guests admired the cabinet full of 60-year-old curios, top-swinging high-bottom shoes, high-wheeled old bicycle and the four-tooled yellow and white spun sugar cake. Kerosene lamps lighted dinner tables for 200 guests. The gold lace ceiling was strung with smilk. The band wore striped blazers and straw hats. A portrait of the late Col. Edwin George, the club's first president, beamed over all.
