It's Official Tree for Town Time Forgot

FRANKLIN—It seems at last that you shall see... an official Franklin village tree.

The decorative, sturdy mountain ash was officially proclaimed Monday night as the living symbol of the town that time forgot.

Promoted by boy scout troop B-11, the choice was made unanimously by polled opinions of local garden groups and the Franklin Community association.

Simple ceremonies with representatives from various organizations participating will be held May 9, at 10 a.m. to formalize the planting of a dozen mountain ashes throughout the village by the boy scouts.

Drainage, Road Work Contracted By Franklin

FRANKLIN—Bids for drainage work on three critical areas in Franklin and approximately 78,000 gallons of calcium chloride were assigned Monday night by Franklin councilmen.

The season's dist. control program was awarded to the Wilkinson company, lowest of six bidders. Culvert and drainage work for Wellington and Willowgreen intersection; Wing Lake and Susanne, and Rosemond court at Rosemond drive fell to the Stanford company, lowest of six bidders.

Work will begin in about 10 days. Giffels company engineers with Franklin heading.
