B'field Heights Couple Returns from Mexico

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts of Lone Pine road are just now catching their breath after returning from a 16-day air-trip to Mexico and the Yucatan.

Their first stop was for five days in Mexico City where they took in the sights and two bull fights. Merida, Yucatan was the next stop, where Mrs. Roberts viewed the archeological site of the ancient Mayan culture. Ruins of cities here have been restored after 20 years of work by the Carnegie Institute.

They flew back to Mexico City and then went by car to Taxco and Acapulco for five days. Here they did the many night spots and since they have both, for several years, belonged to a Latin dance club, they thoroughly enjoyed the cha cha music.

They visited El Mirador, a hotel built on high, jagged point on the coastline where deep entertainment by diving some 200 feet through a narrow, rocky gorge into swirling waters below.

Enthused over the Mayan culture of Yucatan, the Roberts plan to return at their first opportunity and visit several other restored sites.

The Thomas C. Scher family of Goddard court are home from a Florida vacation. Mrs. Scher and daughter Judith spent three weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Helms in Miami. Scher joined them for the last week.

While there, they took a trip to Key West, went for a blimp ride and visited friends in Coral Gables where they enjoyed a beach party.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wright of Totor court are home from a two-week vacation at Casey Key, Fla. While there, they visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wright of Rosedale, Detroit who were wintering there.

Enroute to their Florida vacation, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Grindley of Sudon Lake recently visited in Kansas City where they visited their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Grindley.

Off to a 'Fair' Start

Mrs. David Dolson and Mrs. Harold DeOrlow, who have "taken the reins" of the May 23 Wing Lake school centennial fair, ride via old-time transportation with Mrs. Douglas Dameron and her daughter, Pam. Mrs. Dameron is chairman of the pony concession. Sponsored by the PTO, the annual fair raises funds for PTO projects and this year will be a special event to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the little one-room school. It was the first unit of the building that now houses 600 students. The special ceremony will begin at 2 p.m., May 23.

'Twas East Side, West Side For 3 Gilbert Lake Couples

GILBERT LAKE—Three local couples joined forces recently for a fun weekend in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bird of South Darlington, the Ralph Coskeys of North Darlington and the Harold L. Nading of South Millersway starting a round of exciting activities.

A look at the Jack Paar show, a theater trip to see "Music Man," fun and food at many famous eating places were agenda items including, of course, a shopping spree for the ladies. Grand finale to the trip was a Sunday afternoon cruise around Manhattan Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rockwell of East Millerway recently enjoyed a Caribbean cruise with stops in Barbados, Caracas and a two-day tour of Jamaica.

Mrs. Armin Vogel of Timberlake road returned last week after two months at the Flying V Ranch in Tucson, Ariz. Vogel spent several weeks at the Flying V during Easter and there were joined later by their son, Robert, who came from Amherst college during his spring vacation. Mrs. Francis Moriarty of Hillside drove to Arizona to join Mrs. Vogel for a few days and they motored home together.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Herman Luhrs of North Darlington are their twin granddaughters, Patty Lee and Peggy Lou. They are the daughters of the Luhrs' son, Herman of Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pieu of Carriage road recently vacationed in Florida with their children. They stayed at Singer Island for three weeks and spent most of their time deep-sea fishing. Vacationing with the Pieuces were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Carnegie and family of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pieu and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leary of Carriage road hosted a cocktail party recently at the Learys' home, preceding North Hills association dinner - dance at Orchard Lake country club.

Little newcomer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Raymann of Lathrup road is Marianne Patricia, born April 16. She weighed 6 pounds. The Raymanns also have a son, Ricky, 6.

Come June there'll be a change at the Howard Kehrl home on South Millersway. Kehrl was recently awarded a Sloan Fellowship for a year of graduate study at MIT.

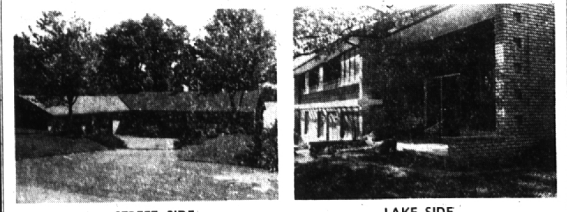

The Kehrl family spent a week-end looking for a house in Boston where they plan to move in June. They will rent their home on Millersway to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas and their two children of Wellesley, Mass.

The Kehrls recently entertained visitors from Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Waldfozel and their three children, who were visiting in Detroit.

Susan Brogan, daughter of Mr.

Monday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard DeCoster of Burnham road entertained dinner guests from Japan. Taniguchi-San and Shida-San stopped to see the DeCosteres while en route to their homes in Tokyo after a trip to New York. Taniguchi-San had entertained the DeCosteres during their recent visit to Japan.

Back from Florida
WING LAKE—Back from their winter home at Vero beach, Florida, are Mr. and Mrs. Alton German of Worlington. They returned Saturday to find their daffodils in bloom much in advance of previous years' progress.
