William Vasu, chairman of the Oakland county Society for Crippled Children 1959 Easter Seal campaign, told this Wanderer recently that returns are far behind last year's total. Vasu asked us to turge you people who haven't yet made your returns to do so, thereby enabling the Society to carry on its rehabilitation program or physically handicapped children. He said the program night be impaired unless sufficient funda are made available from Easter Seal returns.

Some voter apparently got so rattled by Monday's election that he for was it she now must be seeing things very fuzzily. This person walked off with the brown tortiose shell glasses of election board worker Donna Bennett, 2078 Manchester! Until she gets the classes back, her family may be in langer of getting orange juicting orange bigstended to pour on the breakfast cereal, beefsteak with peanut butter, or similar menu!
