Police, FBI Seek Clues to Burglary Of State Office

Birmingham police and FBI agents this week are seeking clues to the burglary of the Birmingham Secretary of State's office, 378 Palm.

Thieves broke into the office sometime between Thursday evening and Friday morning and took state stamps, license plates and registration slips.

Birmingham Det. Lt. Merlin Holmquist said many of the stolen articles were found in a car confiscated by Royal Oak police Friday morning.

THE CAR, stolen in Texas and carrying Illinois plates, contained eight sets of passenger plates and 4 of the 11 missing stamps.

Still missing are five sets of commercial and nine sets of motorcycle plates plus an undetermined amount of business checks belonging to Delbert Ayles, owner of Ayles Concession & Supplies where the office is located.

Det. Norman Probst said entry was gained to the building by breaking a rear window and forcing a door.

Petition Asks B'ham to Push Study of Parks

Birmingham city officials were spurred this week by a 400-signature petition to complete their study of present and proposed uses of city-owned lands.

The petition represented people who want the city to dedicate as parks and preserves as much city-owned land as possible.

City Manager L. R. Gare said he believes he can report on this to the commission in about two months. He, City Attorney James Howlett, and the city plan board all are involved in various phases of the problem.

Howlett is examining land titles and deeds to see what legal restrictions may run with the land. The plan board is considering areas best suited for dedication as park and recreation areas. Gare must work the information into a final report.
