

Newlywed Pielows Honeymoon in Jamaica

Camille Catherine Sink and John W. Pielow were united in marriage Saturday noon at Gesu church. The great-uncle of the bride, Fr. Henry Milet, S.J., performed the ceremony.

The bride appeared in an ivory silk taffeta gown featuring a square neckline applied in petit de lauze lace, studded in tiny pearls and crystal beads and an empire bodice.

MRS. JOHN W. PIELOW

A BOW OF IVORY taffeta and lace secured her two-tier fingertip veil of ivory silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of roses.

Maid of honor was sister of the bride, Marilyn Sink and bridesmaids were Grace Sink and Mrs. J. G. Lassaline, both sisters; and Mrs. Robert Percy, sister of the groom.

They wore white silk organza gowns over taffeta featuring rounded necklines, short sleeves and princess line down shape skirts. Their bouquets consisted of roses.

BEST MAN was Robert Percy, brother-in-law of the groom. Ushers were John Lassaline, Richard Auger and Anthony Victor. Ring bearers were Danial Percy, nephew of the groom.

Mother of the bride wore a wine colored lace dress and pinned white camellias on her purse. Mrs. Pielow chose a French blue chiffon dress.

Cranbrook Residents Vacation on the Riviera

The J. A. Frosts of N. Cranbrook road have just spent an ideal winter. Taking an Italian ship to Naples they spent the month of January in Rome and on the Riviera, then visited Paris and London before they flew home by Jet.

The month of March was spent at the Camelback Inn, Phoenix, Ariz. Daughter Judy, a sophomore at Northwestern, joined them for Easter vacation.

Linda Robeson, a freshman at Colorado college, Colorado Springs, Colo. joined her parents, the H. C. Robesons of Overhill road and brother, Scott, at the "Yankee Clipper" in Fort Lauderdale for her Easter vacation.

She met close friends from the Village, Gib Slater, Pat Henry and Carol Bain, who were in Ft. Lauderdale vacationing also.

The Clarke Andreaes of West Glenngary circle spent their first Easter without their family around them.

Charles Jr. spent Easter vacation in Tucson, Ariz., as guest of Dick Westman.

Frank was houseguest of Sally Kaufman in Columbus, Ohio, over Easter then left the Wednesday afternoon for Indian River in northern Michigan where he was guest of Dick Devor for a few days of skiing.

Daughter Chris was in the upper peninsula as guest of Dick Taylor and his parents of Pickford, Mich. Dave was Chris' houseguest last weekend before their return to U. of M.

Mark was a member of the Bruce Noble trip to Washington, D. C. He, with Danny Glover of the Village, Harry Ellman and Greg Campbell of the Birmingham area toured Washington, then took a two day trip down the Potomac for a visit to Jamestown, Williamsburg and Norfolk.

The Ben D. Mills of Pine road spent the past three weeks at Pompano Beach, Fla. While visiting the A. J. Hodges of Coon, Fla. They were fortunate in seeing the successful launching of a Thor missile. Sons Bob and Ben Jr. were anxious to tell their science class because the fire of the rocket engine was visible for many miles over the Atlantic.

Vee Voelker, daughter of the Donald F. Voelkers of Tibury road entertained 20 Birmingham high schoolers at a Florida party last Friday night. Guests wore Bermuda, engaged coles, chips, dip and pizza and dancing in their tropically decorated recreation room.

The Thomas Petoskeys, Barbara, Shelley, Nancy and Thomas Jr. of Shelling Bush spent the past two months on Ann Maria Island off the Florida coast. They were unusually successful as fishermen and brought 150 pounds of fish home to their friends.
