

Today's environment of mankind is fraught with the terrible menace of a nuclear war... and the pity of it is that one human being who heads a Godless tyranny over the Russian people could plunge all of us into a veritable worldwide holocaust. One evil man could do this!... yet the only true and enduring weapon that can overcome such evils is mankind's achievement of GOOD.

Sub-Debs Entertain Mothers at Luncheon

Among mothers entertained by their daughters, all members of the Sub-Deb club, during the spring holidays were Mrs. Harvey Sanderson (left), club sponsor, with her daughter, Wendy, club secretary; Mrs. John Whittlesey and Karolyn, club treasurer; Mrs. G. Mitchell and Linda, Sub-Deb president, and Mrs. Richard Benecke and Phyllis, vice-president of the club.

Sub-Debs Treat Mothers to Gay Spring Luncheon

Twelve area mothers were reminded that daughters are wonderful when, on April 2, the Sub-Deb club entertained them at luncheon. The Sub-Debs, all members of the junior class at Bloomfield Hills high school, work on a variety of charitable projects including the Pontiac State hospital, Oakland County Children's Home, Northville hospital and Delray Neighborhood House. They have also sent needy children to camp and organized group singing.

Members of the club are Beverly Balfour, Phyllis Benecke, Karen Carter, Barbara French, Nadine Genna, Nancy Little, Linda Mitchell, Wendy Sanderson, Renie Sinclair, Nancy Trowbridge, Karolyn Whittlesey and Holly Freda.

Mrs. Harvey Sanderson is club sponsor. Soroptimists Meet Mrs. Ruth Kelley Skidmore, general insurance agency operator whose hobby is photography, presented a picture program on Norway and Denmark at the March meeting of Soroptimist International of Birmingham.

Marriage Performed By Bride's Father

Redeemer Lutheran church was the scene March 30 for the marriage of Joanna Elizabeth Kuntz and Donald Matthew Biggott. The bride's father, The Rev. Werner Kuntz and the Rev. Theo. Wuggazer performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 130 guests.

MRS. DONALD BIGGOTT

Parents of the newlyweds are the Rev. and Mrs. Werner Kuntz and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wilson, all of Huntington Woods.

THE BRIDE appeared in a gown fashioned of white dotted swiss embroidered organza with a tiered full skirt, fitted bodice and square scalloped neckline. Her veil, a gift brought from Portugal by her father, was hand embroidered circular.

She carried pink sweetheart roses and white stephanotis fastened to a small New Testament which was inlaid mother of pearl hand made in Jerusalem.

Nancy Streeter was honor attendant. Twin sisters of the bride, Susan and Judith, were bridesmaids.

They wore Nile green sheath dresses of silk with white bouffant embroidered over skirts and bows of embroidered organza. They carried colonial nosegays.

JOHN BIGGOTT, twin brother of the groom, stood as best man. Ushers were Richard Kovacs and James Richmond.

Following the ceremony, a candlelight buffet supper was in the church parlors.
