Holy Name Church Scene of Ceremony

Holy Name church in Birmingham was the scene Saturday morning for the marriage of Patricia Dale Spencer and Gregory Henry Frederick, Jr. The Rev. William Davidson performed the 11 o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John T. Spencer, Jr., of Fairfax, road, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Frederick of Vinewood road, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE APPEARED in a taffeta gown styled with a bell skirt and a chapel length train. Alenon-lace embroidered with pearls and crystal beads formed the scooped neckline and tiny bows accented the empire band and the tip of the three quarter sleeves. A lace headpiece secured her fingertip veil of French silk illusion. She carried white orchids and stephanotis on a white prayer book.

Elizabeth Ann Frederick, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Stevenson Edwards, Mrs. William Kelley, Sue Ann Beers and Mrs. John Birney.

MAID OF HONOR wore a white silk organza gown featuring a bell skirt accented with beads of pink chantilly lace with pink satin ribbons ending in tiny bows in the back. Bridesmaids wore the same style dresses, only with blue lace bands.

Little circles of matching satin trimmed with pearls held circular veils forming the headpiece. Maid of honor carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses with petals of white carnations. Attendants carried blue delphinium with carnation petals.

John Carroll Frederick was best man and ushers were John Spivener, William Kelley, William Pfeffenberger, Clayton Chaminate, Robert Morrow and Robert Mitchell.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE selected a caramel dress of alenon lace with matching jacket. Mrs. Frederick chose a sheath dress of Italian silk with a matching jacket. Cymbidium orchids enhanced the envelope nooses of both mothers.
