Don Rohmoser, F. Chose Visit Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. W. C. Rohmoser of Oakhill drive spent the last two weeks visiting the Juel Lindquist and other relatives in Birmingham, Ala.

Joining Mrs. Rohmoser after the first few days of her visit were her son, Don, and a friend, Ferdinand Chose of Gaylord, Mich. Both boys were polio victims in '51 and '52, and travel in their wheel chairs unaided. They are students at Ferris Institute at Big Rapids and took this trip during their Easter vacation.

After their visit Don and Ferdly left Alabama for a ten day tour of Florida. In their travels of the sunshine state they visited Fort Lauderdale for three days, stopped off at Silver Springs, viewed Marineland, took speed boat rides through the waterways and took part on a few deep sea fishing trips. Among their catch were red snappers, and an eleven pound kingfish that Ferdly proudly displayed.

The boys motored back to Alabama for Mrs. Rohmoser before starting their trip homeward and back to college.

The Thomas Summers of North Adams road are home again with memories galore after two weeks touring Mexico. They flew to Mexico City where they were ten days taking in the colorful surroundings. Time was spent in Taxco and Acapulco, where they took boat trips through the islands.

Then on to San Jose Parua where they found the beauty of the countryside almost overwhelming. While in the city they were guests in the unusual home of Mr. and Mrs. Juan O'Gorman, architects from Mexico City.

The home originally was a cave of black lava and as the Summers stepped into the large exotic living room they were spellbound at the sight of growing orchids on the interior. They enjoyed an evening of cocktails and dinner in chairs covered in leopard skins.

The fireplace was another conversation piece, as it was dug out of the lava and added much interest to this very unusual room. Light was brought into the rooms by way of sky lights. Mrs. Summers was impressed with the winding stairways in this never to be forgotten house.

During holy week the Mexican peasants traveled into the cities and villages in their bare feet toting their wares. When night fell they stretched out on the beaches and in the parks for their night rest.

On the next trip to Mexico, the Summers plan on spending most of their time in the breathtaking beauty of San Jose Parua.

The Carl Schorns of Oakhill drive are looking forward to their trip to Quebec, Canada, soon. Their main purpose in going is to have Ann Marie Matie, world famous artist, paint two pictures of them.

Three years ago they made the same trip ordering their first Matie painting. They were told on that visit of people coming from all over the world to buy the paintings, and on Queen Elizabeth's Canadian tour recently the government presented one of Matie's works to the queen.

At that time they viewed the painting being packed for shipment to Governor Williams. The Schorns plan on staying at the Chateau while they tour the city, its shops and historical sites. Three days will be spent at the new Queen Elizabeth hotel in Montreal while they visit that city.

Mrs. Ernest Cole and children, Cindy and Sally, of Butternut Hill drive, flew to Sarasota, Fla., to enjoy the sun, surf and sand at the Sea Castle for 10 days. Cole joined his family last weekend.

The John Haight and daughter, Linda, of Meadowlark court, will be bound for Switzerland June 6. Haight is with Chrysler Corp., and has been transferred as personal director of International Overseas. They plan on making the city of Geneva their home while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Primmore of Far Hill drive announce the arrival of a son, Peter Joseph, born Jan. 11.

The Henry Whittings, Jr., of Orchard Hill drive are enjoying their new son, Gordon, born Nov. 15.

Mrs. Harold Wilkins of Pine Hill drive was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Birmingham Community House - Newcomers club. She is nominating chairman of the committee and will present officers to be elected at the June luncheon at the Community House.

The "Newcomers Club" is open to all newcomers and offers its members an opportunity to meet people through various gatherings such as luncheons, bowling and golf.

The C. S. Maxwells of Hylane drive flew to Florida three weeks ago to enjoy a relaxing vacation of golf, swimming and sunning at North Palm Beach. While there they met Mrs. Maxwell's sister, Mrs. E. A. Lau of Neenah, Wis., who had been spending the winter in Florida. Mrs. Lau returned to Birmingham with the Maxwells for a visit before going on to Wisconsin.

A Sunday afternoon cocktail party was given by the George Millers, Jr., at their home on Far Hill drive in honor of Fran Dawson and Bob Woodruff and their forthcoming wedding at Christ Church Cranbrook in May.

Judie Cowman, 2539 Lanegan, has been chosen winner of four I.F. record albums for her outstanding recipe in the Kroger-Westinghouse "Junior Cook of the Year" contest. The recipe which won for Judie is called "Parmesan Potatoes."
