Franklinites Return From Spring Trips

FRANKLIN — Spring vacations are fast becoming the favorite time for family jaunts with suburbanites who have large yards and gardens to care for during the summer season.

The nation's capital annually gets attention from Franklin's "finest". This year the Homer Hildeman's of N. Greenbriar scheduled a brief trip to Washington and co-incidentally ran into daughter Jan there with her senior class.

The William Worcester's saw Cheryl Blossom just beginning to open, then headed for Cornell for a reunion of 'C' letter-men and football stars. Father Worcester had a happy time with former teammates.

AN UNPLANNED meeting with Franklin neighbors, the Paul Robertson's occurred when one of the Worcester children spotted the Robertson car parked near a restaurant.

"There's knitting in the car," the cry went up. "If it's a cable stitch it's the Robertson's," Mrs. Worcester conjectured.

It was. And there was a noisy, brief reunion as neighbors exchanged experiences over a coffee cup far away from home.

The Robertsons were fulfilling a long avowed exploratory trip east, visiting Lehigh, Rensselaer, and Cornell universities to help high school junior son, Paul Jr., make a choice of colleges from first-hand observation. Daughter, Mary Jane 12, was the only other of the six Robertson children permitted to join the important expedition, totaling 1600 miles.

The Charles Halls of Wellington road drove to Worcester, Mass., for a visit with Mrs. Hall's family and a brief chat with Hall's mother.

Mother and daughter, Mrs. W. K. Griffin and Gail of Franklin Hills drive, flew to Sanibel Island, Fla., for 11 days of relaxing while brother Jim joined the Washington trip with seniors.

The David Bartlesons of 14 Mile road spent 10 days in New Orleans, where they enjoyed the beaches and visited the French quarters.

Mrs. Glenn W. Hines of N. Greenbriar, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Matilda Wells, hustled down to Tucson, Ariz., for 10 days and a holiday from family and teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gavic spent Easter week in Goshen, Ind., visiting with recently married daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Roberts who expect to settle in Indianapolis one day soon. Next to Washington, Florida seemed to be the most popular holiday spot. The Yale Simons' family of Franklin road report eventful flights to and from Miami. An over-booked flight caused some consternation and a flat tire on take-off also made flying interesting. On the return trip they stopped at Louisville to see friends.

A reunion with friends made last year in Miami highlighted the Florida vacation for the E. B. Doherty family of N. Greenbriar. A 20-pound grouper caught and cooked by the group added zest to the holiday.

In N. Miami for two weeks and another week spent visiting parents in Franklin, Ohio afforded the Fred McNabb's of Apple Tree lane plenty of variety on their sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard of Greenbriar returned Sunday from a trip down east to Gettysburg, Washington and the monument circuit.

The Stanley Krentels are back from a holiday at Coral Harbor in Nassau.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hogue returned to their home on Romsy Beach, Fla. They were hosts to Dr. and Mrs. Donald B. Hogue of Holland, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. David B. Hogue of Austin, Tex. Enroute to Franklin they visited friends in Roanoke, Va.

Franklin Church Circles to Meet

FRANKLIN—Valerie Stevens, noted Birmingham decorator, will discuss "Interior Decorating" for members of the Friendly Circle meeting at 12:30 p.m. April 15 at the home of Mrs. Earl Taylor, 27130 Wellington road.

"United Nations" will be the topic for Mrs. Phillip Gentile's talk before members of the Evening Circle at 8:15 p.m. April 16, at the home of Mrs. Robert Love, 30740 Kirk lane.

Council to Study Plan Commission Recommendation

FRANKLIN—Disatisfied with the planning commission recommendation to rezone only 50 feet of residential area instead of 220 feet as petitioned for by Mrs. Ford Ritter, a committee of councilmen will make a study to re-appraise the problem.

The planning group went only so far as to allow re-zoning of the property on which the Franklin Interiors present studios stand.

Mrs. Ritter's petition last week asked for re-zoning to include part of the Village Nursery school property to the north.

Franklin PTA Sets Panel Discussion

FRANKLIN—"Resolving the Problems of Pre-adolescents," a follow-up program to complete the panel discussion held last month by the Franklin PTA, will be held at 8 p.m. Monday in the school multi-purpose room.

Dr. John Burger, program chairman will lead a panel with Dr. Richard Galpin, Dr. Charles Barker, Dr. Ralph Margulis and Rev. Robert Swarik.

Mrs. Eugene Kelly and Mrs. Samuel Gawne are hostesses.

Bloodmobile Unit To Stop in Franklin

FRANKLIN—Mrs. George Howard, chairman of the eastern district for the Inter-lakes Bloodmobile, announced this week that a mobile unit will be in Franklin April 27 from 2:30 to 8:30 p.m., at the Franklin Community church.

Mrs. Ken Bailey is in charge of recruiting donors for the spring blood drive.
