

Forman Drive Association Holds Spring Dinner-Dance

WING LAKE—The Forman drive Wing Lake subdivision property owner's association held their spring dinner-dance Saturday at the Edgewood country club.

Although several members were vacationing in Florida and some were ill, those attending report a most gala occasion.

They were the president and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoffman, the James Holdens, Rowland Hutchinsons, Joseph Irwins, Frederick Symes, Ray Waldrons and Dr. Earl Westons.

Mrs. Waldron heard strains of the "Happy Birthday" melody during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Stephenson of Forman drive are home after four weeks in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Mrs. Stephenson left first with friends and Stephenson and his mother, Mrs. Mary Lipaki of Detroit flew down and joined her for the last two weeks.

Enroute they visited Ft. Meyers.

Mrs. and Mrs. I. A. Homerich of Carey lane have returned from an enjoyable three weeks at Ft. Meyers Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Homerich's sister and husband, Judge Gerald Mehan and Mrs. Mehan of Hart, Mich., were there at the same time and the couples enjoyed fishing and side trips to Sarasota and Clearwater.

This past weekend the Homer-ichs visited their summer home on Lake Huron.

Saturday afternoon Susan Cole of Worthington road, spent March 27 at a linen bridal shower given by Mrs. William Stotz of Tiresman in Detroit.

Guests were former and present sorority sisters of Susan's sorority at Hillsdale college where she is a senior. Also present were her aunts, Mrs. James Slater of Grand Lodge, Mich., and Susan's mother, Mrs. W. R. Cole of Worthington road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, daughter Sandra Sue and son Randy of Worthington road, spent March 27 to April 4 in New York City. Motoring to N. Y., they took with them Smith's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Smith, who sailed Wednesday for a six-week trip to Europe.

Headquartering at the Lexington, they took in the interesting tourist attractions of the city.

All boarded the Queen Elizabeth for a tour through the ship.

Enroute home they stopped at Valley Forge and Niagara Falls.

Foxcroft WNFCA to Present 'Fashions Through the Ages'

FOXCREST—A family fun night has been planned by the Foxcroft WNFCA at the Bloomfield Hills junior high school April 17 when they will present "Fashions Through the Ages."

Fashions through several generations will be featured. Many of the costumes will be furnished by the Dearborn Historical Society. Others will come from garden club members and will include an 80-year-old wedding gown and a christening robe of two generations ago.

Garden club members and some of their children and husbands will model the fashions. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. J. H. Bennett is chairman of the fashion show and working with her are Mrs. H. D. MacGregor, Mrs. W. W. MacGregor, Mrs. R. A. Wilson, Mrs. H. G. Haines, Mrs. Ralph Ellsworth, Jr. and Mrs. G. W. Barton. Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. H. G. Haines.

Most of our many spring vacationers returned home last weekend after a variety of trips and visits during school vacation days. The C. B. Bugnetta of Tanglewood motored to West Virginia to visit relatives over Easter weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Doenges of Lantern Lane took their daughters, Lynda and Caryl, to North Carolina to spend a week with relatives.

Another visiting family were the A. A. Arbogasts of West Surrey. Mrs. Arbogast and the children went to Chicago to spend several days with relatives. Next weekend the Arbogasts will entertain houseguests, Dr. and Mrs. John Swan of Indianapolis. More weekend guests from Indianapolis are expected on April 17. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Walker and Mrs. E. C. Leisure will be with the Arbogasts to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary on April 21.

Florida was a popular place for vacationing Foxcrofters. Dr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson of Lantern Lane enjoyed three weeks with friends in Clearwater and also visited at Indian Rock Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kershaw of East Surrey motored to North Carolina with their son, Ricky. They spent several days; visiting Kershaw's mother and brother in Columbia then went on to St. Augustine, Fla.

Another family motoring south were the A. M. Ciagnos and their daughter, Cary, of Sandy lane. Mrs. Ciagne's sister accompanied them to Florida and they enjoyed a week at Lauderdale-by-the-sea.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Haefner of Valley Forge took their children, Jimmy and Gail with them to spend two weeks vacationing with both their families at Vero Beach and Boca Raton.

Two families headed east on Good Friday. Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Reynolds and their sons, Jack and Bob of Valley Forge went to Washington, D. C. for several days of sightseeing. Highlight of the trip for Jack and Bob was a stop at Annapolis while en route home.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Lau of East Surrey also traveled to Washington with their children, Mary, Greg and David. They spent Easter Sunday in Gettysburg and were thrilled to see the President and his
