SOCIETY

recently outgoing president, Mrs. Gilbert Burrell of Lansing, Mrs. Ralph Curtis, Mrs. H. H. Gardner, Mrs. H. Glenn Shutes and Mrs. D. L. Tate took special pride in viewing the Junior cabin recently completed.

It is the first Junior cabin, which revenue of scholarship will go towards Jr. highschool musical students or under the age. The cabin has 4 units completely equipped with kitchens and it is winterized.

On Sunday at the Kresge Assembly hall, students as well as visitors gathered to hear a most impressive program of organ music, brass choir, harp ensemble and the high school choir.

• DR. HOWARD HANSON gave a stimulating message, "Values" emphasizing the necessity of spiritual growth. Following the program there was a presentation of citations, among them one to the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—the society editor about them.
