

PTA Officers Are Listed For Birmingham Schools

PTA is a volunteer organization of parents, teachers, and other citizens who care deeply about children and youth, the schools they attend, the communities they live in, and their opportunities for growth into happy, healthy, responsible citizens.

Their objects are to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community; to bring into closer relation the home and the school; and to raise the standards of home life.

CRANBROOK

CRANBROOK—A new master of Spanish, James D. Stevens, has been named to the Cranbrook school faculty by Harry D. Hoey, headmaster. The school for boys will begin its academic year on Sept. 21.

Stevens comes to Cranbrook from New Mexico where he has been in graduate college at the University of New Mexico. He has a BA degree from the university.

A STUDENT of Spanish since junior high, Stevens also has lived in the Canal Zone and has traveled throughout Central and South America.

As an undergraduate, he majored in inter-American affairs and history, and he participated in varsity and intramural sports. He has served as assistant coach for swimming and wrestling and as track manager at the university.

For the past two years he was physical education director and coach at Manzano Day school, an independent school for grades one through six.
